

Heroes of the Faith Series. 01/01/2020

Hebrews 11 is about God's recording of the Heroes of Faith throughout history, who usually are called to rescue God's people from bad situations or perform some God honoring work (or both). I believe it is meant to encourage us in our Walk, showing us basically what works and what does not, and inspires us to 'go and do likewise'.

The following (or picture link) is a summary of history though time charts taken from James Ussher's Annals of the World along with the interactions of Heroes throughout time.

Of course I have to add my interpretation. After over 45 years of Bible study, I pray to present a contextual view of Scripture. And of course there will be disagreements according to our particular ism or multiple isms.

Ever since the Beginning, and after the Tower of Babel restart, it has been all about responsible behavior toward God, for all of Creation, including all those who would truly believe the Gospel of the Son with its heavenly reward, and not some -ism-.

Ultimately, sheep are sheep and goats are goats, but how then should those sheep and goats live and die, given the gift of life from the Father Creator? And in what way are we responsible in what happens to us and the world we live in?

God's first Command and Jesus last command are listed below. Do our isms hinder or enhance these Commands?

My ism, Real-ism? Or what does the Bible or God's Word actually say? Is history the key to understanding? Well, as best we can do, with the Spirit's help.

NKJV Genesis 1:28.

Then God blessed them, and God said to them, "Be fruitful and multiply; fill the earth and subdue it; have dominion over the fish of the sea, over the birds of the air, and over every living thing that moves on the earth."

NKJV Matthew 28:18.

Then Jesus came and spoke to them, saying, "All authority has been given to Me in heaven and on earth. 19. "Go therefore and make disciples of all the nations, baptizing them in the name of the Father and of the Son and of the Holy Spirit, 20. "teaching them to observe all things that I have commanded you; and lo, I am with you always, even to the end of the age." Amen.

Heroes of the Faith Series.

John 3: 16. "For God so loved the world that He gave His only begotten Son, that whoever believes in Him should not perish but have everlasting life. 17. "For God did not send His Son into the world to condemn the world, but that the world through Him might be saved. 18. "He who believes in Him is not condemned; but he who does not believe is condemned already, because he has not believed in the name of the only begotten Son of God. 19. "And this is the condemnation, that the light has come into the world, and men loved darkness rather than light, because their deeds were evil. 20. "For everyone practicing evil hates the light and does not come to the light, lest his deeds should be exposed. 21. "But he who does the truth comes to the light, that his deeds may be clearly seen, that they have been done in God."

Hebrews 11

- 1. Now faith is the substance of things hoped for, the evidence of things not seen.
- 2. For by it the elders obtained a good testimony.
- 3. By faith we understand that the worlds were framed by the word of God, so that the things which are seen were not made of things which are visible.

Day 1 to 4

Day 5

Day 6

Exodus 20 – 4th Commandment – 24/7 Mandate)

8. "Remember the Sabbath day, to keep it holy.

9. Six days you shall labor and do all your work,

10. but the seventh day is the Sabbath of the Lord your God.

In it you shall do no work: you, nor your son, nor your daughter, nor your male servant, nor your female servant, nor your cattle, nor your stranger who is within your gates.

11. For in six days the Lord made the heavens and the earth, the sea, and all that is in them, and rested the seventh day. Therefore the Lord blessed the Sabbath day and hallowed it.

Some say Jesus fulfilled the Law and the Ten Commandments no longer apply. So it is okay to murder, steal, and worship false gods...? And what about those who do, and injure God's people in lands where we live?

What about work on Sunday?

Mark 2:23. Now it happened that He went through the grainfields on the Sabbath; and as they went His disciples began to pluck the heads of grain. 24. And the Pharisees said to Him, "Look, why do they do what is not lawful on the Sabbath?" ..(ie David) 27. And He said to them, "The Sabbath was made for man, and not man for the Sabbath. 28. "Therefore the Son of Man is also Lord of the Sabbath."

Works of necessity versus works of profit or convenience, or even doing no valid works at all.

The Ten Commandments

- 1. Thou shalt have no other gods before me.
- 2. Thou shalt not make unto thee any graven images.
- 3. Thou shalt not take the Lord's name in vain.
- 4. Remember the Sabbath Day to keep it holy.
- 5. Honor thy Father and thy Mother
- 6. Thou shalt not kill.
- 7. Thou shalt not commit adultery.
- 8. Thou shalt not steal.
- 9. Thou shalt not bear false witness.
- 10. Thou shalt not covet thy neighbor's house, wife or possessions.

Acts 20

28. "Therefore take heed to yourselves and to all the flock, among which the Holy Spirit has made you overseers, to shepherd the church of God which He purchased with His own blood. 29. "For I know this, that after my departure savage wolves will come in among you, not sparing the flock.

30. "Also from among yourselves men will rise up, speaking perverse things, to draw away the disciples after themselves.

Adding Unto, and Taking Away:

<http://historyreally.org/hist04.html>

4. By faith Abel offered to God a more excellent sacrifice than Cain, through which he obtained witness that he was righteous, God testifying of his gifts; and through it he being dead still speaks.

5. By faith Enoch was translated so that he did not see death, "and was not found because God had translated him"; for before his translation he had this testimony, that he pleased God.

6. But without faith it is impossible to please Him, for he who comes to God must believe that He is, and that He is a rewarder of those who diligently seek Him.

7. By faith Noah, being divinely warned of things not yet seen, moved with godly fear, prepared an ark for the saving of his household, by which he condemned the world and became heir of the righteousness which is according to faith.

Abel, Enoch, and Noah made it to Hebrews 11. Only 3 heroes in 1656 years? Adam and Eve blew it, but so would we, sooner or later. They showed remorse and God sacrificed an animal, the first death, to cover their shame. Abel picked up on the sacrifice, (family tradition?), in Seth's days, they called upon the name of the Lord, Enoch exemplified it, and Noah carried it into the new world (Gen. 8:20). Shem, Eber (Melchizedek), ..., Jethro, Moses (Book of the Law) passed it on to us.

Noah drunk? Even our 'learning mistakes' reveal the unreconciled depravity in others (Gen. 9:20-25).

What happened to God's people before the flood? We are talking about 1656 years of mankind living to great ages. Adam lived 930 of those 1656 years. With long lives, the population of the earth (Pangaea) must have been overwhelming, not only space wise but food wise, etc. If we add the Abel/Cain dispute, then we can assume some type of war between Adam's people and Cain's people. Seems logical that Noah and his family were survivors of that warfare. At this point God said 'enough', Ark done, Flood rescued Noah's family: 8.

Abel was able, but blindsided by Cain. Adam and Eve perfect, but blindsided by the Serpent. Our enemies have not changed.

About that Tower of Babel:

<http://historyreally.org/hist02.html>

8. By faith Abraham obeyed when he was called to go out to the place which he would afterward receive as an inheritance. And he went out, not knowing where he was going.

9. By faith he sojourned in the land of promise as in a foreign country, dwelling in tents with Isaac and Jacob, the heirs with him of the same promise;

10. for he waited for the city which has foundations, whose builder and maker is God.

11. By faith Sarah herself also received strength to conceive seed, and she bore a child when she was past the age, because she judged Him faithful who had promised.

12. Therefore from one man, and him as good as dead, were born as many as the stars of the sky in multitude innumerable as the sand which is by the seashore.

13. These all died in faith, not having received the promises, but having seen them afar off were assured of them, embraced them, and confessed that they were strangers and pilgrims on the earth.

14. For those who say such things declare plainly that they seek a homeland.

15. And truly if they had called to mind that country from which they had come out, they would have had opportunity to return.

16. But now they desire a better, that is, a heavenly country. Therefore God is not ashamed to be called their God, for He has prepared a city for them.

17. By faith Abraham, when he was tested, offered up Isaac, and he who had received the promises offered up his only begotten son,

18. of whom it was said, "In Isaac your seed shall be called,"

19. accounting that God was able to raise him up, even from the dead, from which he also received him in a figurative sense.

An artistic expression. What is the Biblical expression? How about 'walk a mile in my sandals'. How about the sandal on the other foot. If I reverse the colors, would things be any different?

Hebrews 7:15. And it is yet far more evident if, in the likeness of Melchizedek, there arises another priest 16. who has come, not according to the law of a fleshly commandment, but according to the power of an endless life. 17. For He testifies: "You are a priest forever according to the order of Melchizedek."

Gen. 14 Abraham at age 84 and 'trained servants' rescue Sodom., and his nephew Lot. And freed potential slaves and most likely secured the Peace of Salem from the 'Kings of the East' or the 'Babel people'.

Melchizedek (or Eber), first Hebrew, and first Prophet, Priest and King who 'accumulated' information for Book of the Law (how great is that), passed it down to Jethro (a priest of Midian), who passed it to Moses, who 'inspirationally' wrote it down (Jer. 36:4 - Baruch). A man (and eventually Levites), who represents God who has no genealogy, who performed the first sacrifice for Adam and Eve (first death, an animal to clothe their shame) and the last sacrifice of His only Son for those who would believe. 'The position and not the person.'

Abraham, Father of many nations, and the faithful, a diplomat, soldier, great.... grandson of Melchizedek, and a pretty crafty guy in a dangerous world, by faith, of course. My kind of 'Dad'. Like Jesus, Semitic & Brown.

Speaking of slavery (or servanthood). As old as the hills. I worked for 50 years, sometimes as a slave, sometimes as a servant. Biblically speaking, Abraham had servants and Pharaoh had slaves. And the Apostle Paul speaks about 'being slaves to Christ', who treats us as servants, or even brothers and sisters. Someone has to be responsible and someone has to do the work, until they are responsible. And we are all responsible to Christ. Sounds good in theory, but the practice has been embarrassing. God did not leave Adam in charge, but left him to be responsible. Pass it to Seth,,,, Moses: Book of the Law and the Ten Commandments, etc..

>> Let us be Biblically trained servants. <<
>> Led by The Spirit of the Living God <<

I suspect many US Early Fathers (and many US Southerners) had 'servants'. Better than being 'slaves' somewhere else. This is All about the Gospel, Great Commission and Commandments (or law and order). Met a current day American Indian Chief (only God is Native) once who said 'it was a mess on both sides, thanks to radicals. But a lot of us got to know Jesus. This all about Christ's Great Commission or the resistance to it.

(Replace victimology with victoryology.)

Of course we have Sarai (Sarah) who laughed when told she would be a mother at 90. How many would say 'no way, not me, not now'. Was not easy I'm sure, but she made it to the Hebrews Hall of Fame.

(Isaac sacrifice testing Abraham at 126.)

Abraham got the 'Father Promise' at 75. She is my sister thing (well, half-sister): Abraham at 76 told Pharaoh this and at 99 told Abimelech the Philistine. Isaac born at 100. If Abraham did the 'martyr' thing, well, I guess we would need another Father of Faith. And both leaders respected the institution of marriage and eventually Abraham's God, thanks to God's intervention. Lessons for all of in our journey of faith.

(This American Indian Chief I met was in Tallahassee Florida for a taping of a PBS special about his tribe and a mystery of a jeweled cross that he had inherited. He related to me that his people had been influenced by Spanish Missionaries, and still are today, including himself. Of course later that day PBS History Detectives made him look like a child and ridiculed his cross and said that the cross was of Indian origin and had nothing to do with Christianity. Obviously those who do not appreciate Christianity do not appreciate how the founding of America was based on Christ's Great Commission and that all peoples must hear of Christ's Work on the Cross for those who would believe. No mystery in that, history defectives.)

(Note about The Great Commission: after the Tower of Babel incident people ventured out into the world. This venture was about people finding a place to live, and the action was rarely peaceful I am sure. Survival of the fittest. Upon Christ's leaving He told His disciples basically to go out and find the Babel people taking not only the Good News, but the law and order, education, etc. to enjoy and promote the Good News. But those who reject the Good News are determined to silence any Good News. Hence the conflicts that we have.)

20. By faith Isaac blessed Jacob and Esau concerning things to come.

21. By faith Jacob, when he was dying, blessed each of the sons of Joseph, and worshiped, leaning on the top of his staff.

Was Jacob the 'go to guy' or the 'get away from guy'?

Jacob lived 147 years, his name is mentioned 341 times in the KJV Bible, fathered the 12 tribes of Israel, wrestled with God (and man) and prevailed, and a Pharaoh who knew Joseph, and Jacob, sponsored a large funeral procession back to Canaan to be buried with Abraham and Isaac, etc. in Machpelah (Gen. 49:30). Among other things, but,, he is remembered for Esau's despising his birthright, or that God loved him best.

But if we read Genesis 27 (the hairy arm incident), especially verse 13, it was Rebecca who despised Esau being in charge after Isaac's death. Jacob must have thought 'honor your father and mother', or 'I might get hit'. Jacob had to leave town and build his own birthright. A self-made man (well, with Providential help), who through trials and tribulations earned the reputation as 'God's go to guy' and received God's Spiritual Birthright. I know we may falter with age, but did Isaac know leadership?

Sure we are not saved by works, but works prove our salvation. Why do people believe old wives tales and myths without fact-checking the data available to us? We need heroes not scapegoats. May I sit near Jacob's Banquet Table. Hate to be one of those waiting on the Heroes' Table.

22. By faith Joseph, when he was dying, made mention of the departure of the children of Israel, and gave instructions concerning his bones.

23. By faith Moses, when he was born, was hidden three months by his parents, because they saw he was a beautiful child; and they were not afraid of the king's command.

Did Joseph Invent the Grain Futures Market?

And did he profit from ill-gotten grain?

Or was it a matter of survival for all those around Joseph; or was it a matter of instituting a 'provisional' form of government, or was it a matter of teaching self-reliance to citizenry; or was it a matter of instituting a 20 percent flat tax (provide for the common good), or was it a matter of opportunistic Pharaohs who turned servitude into slavery and bring judgment on their own people and themselves; or was it a matter of blessing God's people for future accomplishments; or was it a matter of God meaning it for good, but man using it for evil, or was it a matter of man meaning it for evil, but God using it for good?

430 years from promise to Abraham to giving of the Law. Galatians 3:16-17
 After Joseph died, my guess is that the Hebrews isolated themselves from the culture (Goshen), aroused suspicion, and eventually were enslaved by a new Pharaoh (and their own poor leadership? Ism's over God's Word - at this point in time, at least the history of God's people). A majority of the population enslaved by one evil man (about 68 years). Sound familiar? We have abandoned our schools & culture and bad pharaohs are just looking for ways to be our taskmasters. Time for a Moses, wilderness, Joshua...

24. By faith Moses, when he became of age, refused to be called the son of Pharaoh's daughter,

25. choosing rather to suffer affliction with the people of God than to enjoy the passing pleasures of sin,

26. esteeming the reproach of Christ greater riches than the treasures in Egypt; for he looked to the reward.

27. By faith he forsook Egypt, not fearing the wrath of the king; for he endured as seeing Him who is invisible.

28. By faith he kept the Passover and the sprinkling of blood, lest he who destroyed the firstborn should touch them.

29. By faith they passed through the Red Sea as by dry land, whereas the Egyptians, attempting to do so, were drowned.

Jethro, another hero:

Patriarchal Character:

<http://historyreally.org/hist08.html>

If you want a job done right, call Joshua, Caleb and Rahab. Caleb the quiet one and right hand man of Joshua. Men of faith, raised in the non PC world of the wilderness under the Big Ten Commandments. Rahab the prostitute of Jericho who aided the two spies of Joshua. Did she lie, or was she according to James 2:25 “justified by works”? And included in Hebrews 11:31, a Heroine of Faith in the Hebrew’s God.

And of course we have Joshua. A man of stellar character and action in obeying God. Well, except for the Gibeonite deception where Joshua showed compassion (Joshua 9)?

God had commanded all inhabitants to be eliminated. It appears that many knew of what happened 40 years ago in Egypt and how a large number of people of the ‘Lord or God in Heaven’ (Rehab & Joshua 2 view) was leading them in the ‘wilderness’ by a ‘pillar of fire and cloud’. Jasher may have known of it, but wrote the ‘Longest Day, Ever’ (Joshua 10, or was it Hugh Ross, etc. and his views – justified by faith in God’s Word and the 4th Commandment? See Humphries ‘Starlight & Time’).

God heeded the voice of a man, in ‘Canaan’? Why conger up a miracle, when we have the presence of God? God also honored Joshua’s compassion, and I assume many Hebrews who showed the same compassion in war. Others, who had warning, and did not leave Canaan, were eliminated. A true testimony to God’s ‘sovereign knowledge’ & action as we progress through the pages of His’tory.

What about today, and the Bible message to ‘repent and truly believe on Christ and His Word’ (1 John 2:1-6) or face elimination from the real Promised Land, now and forever? Same thing?

30. By faith the walls of Jericho fell down after they were encircled for seven days.

31. By faith the harlot Rahab did not perish with those who did not believe, when she had received the spies with peace.

The Judges Period. About 310 years, with 14 Judges listed.

I may be the last to realize this, but the 'judges' were more like military leaders. They were actually freeing God's people from God's discipline and judgement by eliminating an invading power. God was Judge'ing His people for pagan practices.

There was no centralized power base like with the future King Saul. But when one of the 12 Tribes needed help, others would step up.

Four of these judges made it to Hebrews 11 Hall of Fame, Gideon, Barak, Samson and Jephthah.

Missing from the Judges story is the lack of a good priest who would interpret and teach the Book of the Law to the people.

Moses in Deut. 31: 9. So Moses wrote this law and delivered it to the priests, the sons of Levi, who bore the ark of the covenant of the Lord, and to all the elders of Israel. 10. And Moses commanded them, saying: "At the end of every seven years, at the appointed time in the year of release, at the Feast of Tabernacles, 11. "when all Israel comes to appear before the Lord your God in the place which He chooses, you shall read this law before all Israel in their hearing.

Joshua 7 years later did it (Joshua 8:34), but not recorded again until King Josiah found the Book of the Law in the wall (2 Kings 22) 820 years later, and Ezra 170 years later (Nehemiah. 8).

Basically a Six Day Creation to the 10 Commandments, to a 7th Day Historical Rest or Curse. Some lessons here?

32. And what more shall I say? For the time would fail me to tell of Gideon and Barak and Samson and Jephthah, also of David and Samuel and the prophets:

33. who through faith subdued kingdoms, worked righteousness, obtained promises, stopped the mouths of lions,

34. quenched the violence of fire, escaped the edge of the sword, out of weakness were made strong, became valiant in battle, turned to flight the armies of the aliens.

35. Women received their dead raised to life again. And others were tortured, not accepting deliverance, that they might obtain a better resurrection.

Heb. 11:32. And what more shall I say? For the time would fail me to tell of Gideon and Barak and Samson and Jephthah, also of David and Samuel and the prophets:.... What can we say about Samuel: 1 Sam. 2:26. And the child Samuel grew in stature, and in favor both with the Lord and men. Sound familiar?

Luke 2:52. And Jesus increased in wisdom and stature, and in favor with God and men. Samuel, a Prophet, Priest and King (Judge), advised King Saul, and got King David on the road to his destiny: 50 years a star, 20 years paying the price for adultery/murder. Hope and lesson for all of us. Even Richard 'Misdemeanor' Nixon (all should be so bad).

Back in the old days, we got the King's Son, or who could steal it. Today, we vote them in, or who can steal it. Billy Graham recently said, should have stayed out of politics. Right? (ps. I see DDE has his own Bible. Good Old News).

Matthew 28: 19. Therefore go and make disciples of all nations, baptizing them in the name of the Father and of the Son and of the Holy Spirit, 20. and teaching them to obey everything I have commanded you. And surely I am with you always, to the very end of the age."

Billy Graham would have been 100 this year. If the universe is 6021 years old, about 60.2 centuries. Say what?

Along with Billy, D. James Kennedy and his EE Program helped fill the Churches in the 70's and 80's with the Invitational Gospel, and helped spawn the cultural and spiritual revival of the 80's (I was there). God's people united in a good Spirit.

Of course we inflicted our ism's on them and turned it all into an Exclusionary Gospel, and a bad Spirit. The Old Testament and Church History is a testimony to a pattern of self-destruction and our own wilderness experiences.

We have US Presidents and Rulers and Authorities going back to Adam and Eve. We also have the war between the attitude of Cain toward his brother Abel who brought a proper sacrifice and attitude before God. A long history of conflict. Conservative leadership (secular and religious) is about fixing a problem. Liberal leadership (secular and religious) is about avoiding the hard work and choices to fix a problem. I am guessing (Biblically and historically) that Jews may not be back for about 978 years. Now what?

How many US Presidents will we see at the final heavenly banquet? The link below lists 10 possible Christian Professing Presidents.
<https://www.whatchristianswanttoknow.com/christian-preside.../>

Back in 2001, I saw on TV an interview with GW Bush in the Rose Garden with Peter Jennings of ABC News. Sorry can't find 'any' reference anywhere to this (my memory is very clear on this one). GW confessed Jesus as Lord to Peter Jennings on national TV. GW became a target of our liberal left (secular and religious). Not to mention Al Gore supporters and the challenges of 9/11/2001.

In a nutshell conservative leadership is interested in the proper application of the 10 Commandments and actually fixing a problem (as best we can until the left trashes it). Whereas liberal leadership will bend the commandments and throw a lot of band aids at the problem and then blame someone else for their failures. My parent's generation was led to fix a problem in WW II.

In 1965 I was drafted into a band aid war of political correctness and destruction. The results speak for themselves. LBJ's Defense guy wrote about the big mistakes made in Viet Nam and the same news item finally gave Nixon credit for finally ending it the best way he could and establishing peaceful relations with the Asian countries involved, etc.

I know GW and War seem to be linked, as Nixon and scandal (misdemeanor-all presidents should be so bad), but the war I am talking about is the war with the Devil, and those who belong to him, the scandal they need to project to maintain their defiance to God.

WW I and II were about getting Israel home and both Gulf Wars were about maintaining 'the peace of Jerusalem'. When are we to get this? Come to think about it, Korea, Viet Nam, etc. are wars about world systems seeking to eliminate Judeo-Christian principles, The Great Commission about Redemption through Christ Jesus, and God's Ten Commandments about the universe that God created for us.

1620 Official start of the objection to Great Commission.

M See Ga - English, MC Ega - Spanish, MaCEga - Irish, Mc Ega'ski - Polish, etc. Politically incorrect, in any language?

Speaking of Europe (like America), aside from fearing another world war (III?), climate change, pandemics, over population, bad morality etc., is struggling with the Migration problem.

Liberals want no restrictions; conservatives (or nationalists) want a 'controlled migration', maintaining a healthy environment, maybe even train some migrants to go home and nationalize those left behind. And send with them competent advisors, missionaries, and police (or army) protection.

Original Intent - MCEGA.

The only way it can work, as Jesus said,

Matthew 28:19. "Go therefore and make disciples of all the nations, baptizing them in the name of the Father and of the Son and of the Holy Spirit, 20. "teaching them to observe all things that I have commanded you; and lo, I am with you always, even to the end of the age." Amen.

Hebrews 11:33 who through faith subdued kingdoms, worked righteousness, obtained promises, stopped the mouths of lions, 34. quenched the violence of fire, escaped the edge of the sword, out of weakness were made strong, became valiant in battle, turned to flight the armies of the aliens. 35. Women received their dead raised to life again. And others were tortured, not accepting deliverance, that they might obtain a better resurrection. 36. Still others had trial of mockings and scourgings, yes, and of chains and imprisonment. 37. They were stoned, they were sawn in two, were tempted, were slain with the sword. They wandered about in sheepskins and goatskins, being destitute, afflicted, tormented 38. of whom the world was not worthy. They wandered in deserts and mountains, in dens and caves of the earth. 39. And all these, having obtained a good testimony through faith, did not receive the promise, 40. God having provided something better for us, that they should not be made perfect apart from us.

The above chart and text covers a lot of ground and a lot of heroes of faith. And a lot of years: about 675 years until the 2nd desolation of Jerusalem and about 1900 years until the Jews return from exile (1948 & 1968 Six Day War – Autonomous Rule), and of course until today. The author of Hebrews (Paul, Hebrew of Hebrews) at this point in time was talking about those who preceded him, and maybe even some contemporaries, including himself, who suffered persecution and an ‘unnatural’ death, at the hands of ‘certain ruling authorities’. But other rulers listened, leading to any future successes of The Great Commission that Christ left with the Church. And I suppose we can carry this forward to include almost 2000 years of NT Church history of heroes.

Verses 35-38 speak to the negative, whereas verses 33-34 speak to the positive or success stories. With people like Enoch and Joshua, we are talking about a lifelong success. While with others, we are talking about varying degrees of partial success. Any in depth study of the heroes of faith should give us understanding of what works and what does not. Sure wish I had been weaned on this stuff, but at some point, where do I, we go from here? Will we wind up in the negative or positive category? Is it Top Down (good leadership) or Bottom Up (fostering good leadership), or both?

Hebrews 12:1. Therefore we also, since we are surrounded by so great a cloud of witnesses, let us lay aside every weight, and the sin which so easily ensnares us, and let us run with endurance the race that is set before us, 2. looking unto Jesus, the author and finisher of our faith, who for the joy that was set before Him endured the cross, despising the shame, and has sat down at the right hand of the throne of God. 3. For consider Him who endured such hostility from sinners against Himself, lest you become weary and discouraged in your souls.

36. Still others had trial of mockings and scourgings, yes, and of chains and imprisonment.

37. They were stoned, they were sawn in two, were tempted, were slain with the sword. They wandered about in sheepskins and goatskins, being destitute, afflicted, tormented

38. of whom the world was not worthy. They wandered in deserts and mountains, in dens and caves of the earth.

39. And all these, having obtained a good testimony through faith, did not receive the promise,

40. God having provided something better for us, that they should not be made perfect apart from us.

You cannot see Jerusalem from Bethlehem, but it is still there. About a 6 mile camel ride or shepherd's walk, to take goods-news to Jerusalem. I can just see the Magi listening to those excited shepherds talk of Messiah's Birth. Got to be there! Wise men and women still seek Him.

Jesus at 12. A man among men, after His Bar Mitzvah, and before Rabbi School. Learn who He was from the Scriptures.

Heroes of the Faith. If you read the bio of Alexander the Great, you see the secret of success: die or submit to secular Greek Rule. Of course he had a great army to back him up, but Alexander knew worldly mercy was easier.

The Church operates the same way? As we saw Hurricane Irma move in, I sensed that people re-become aware of death and reality. Our message is: die or submit to Godly Mercy through Christ. Ultimate Reality Program.

But then we add our -ism- or belief system. Somewhat necessary I suppose, but very confusing. Not only to the world, but to people in the Church. Political and Religious Correctness are starting to look too much alike.

And I have my -ism-, prayerfully 'real-ism'. Looking at the Bible for what it says, and not what some tradition says. Good luck, right?

About that Joshua Card. I crossed an -ism-boundary. I think it is a good possibility that Joshua's long day, was a result of the presence of God, a pillar of fire and cloud. A rational understanding (At least, a Fear of God)?

Like a 6 Day Creation, or Free Will, or 10 Commandments, or Magi in a Nativity Scene, etc., we have our 'don't ask, don't tell' or 'agree to disagree' issues. Unity is good, but I think we have reached a 'tipping point', where necessary truths are lost, and God's people are unnecessarily injured.

With these Heroes of Faith Cards, I hope to find answers to problems that plague us today. 'No sheep are lost, but how should we then live and die'.

I know this may sound crazy, but many people want Jesus back now. But the Heroes of Faith were 'inspired' about the health of God's people, and following generations. Like you and me...

Hebrews 12

1. Therefore we also, since we are surrounded by so great a cloud of witnesses, let us lay aside every weight, and the sin which so easily ensnares us, and let us run with endurance the race that is set before us,

2. looking unto Jesus, the author and finisher of our faith, who for the joy that was set before Him endured the cross, despising the shame, and has sat down at the right hand of the throne of God.

3. For consider Him who endured such hostility from sinners against Himself, lest you become weary and discouraged in your souls.

Mt. 27:50. Jesus, when he had cried again with a loud voice, yielded up the ghost. 51. And, behold, the veil of the temple was rent in twain from the top to the bottom; and the earth did quake, and the rocks rent; 52. And the graves were opened; and many * bodies of the saints which slept arose, 53. And came out of the graves after his resurrection, and went into the holy city, and appeared unto many.

(*John witness to 144,000 Acts 1)

Acts 1:9. And when he had spoken these things, while they beheld, he was taken up; and a cloud received him out of their sight.

Dan 7:13. I was watching in the night visions, and behold, coming with the clouds of heaven! He came to the Ancient of Days, and they brought Him near before Him.

1 Thess. 4:16. For the Lord himself shall descend from heaven with a shout, with the voice of the archangel, and with the trump of God: and the dead in Christ shall rise first: 17. Then we which are alive and remain shall be caught up together with them in the clouds, to meet the Lord in the air: and so shall we ever be with the Lord.

Rev. 1:7. Behold, he cometh with clouds; and every eye shall see him, and they also which pierced him: and all kindreds of the earth shall wail because of him. Even so, Amen.

Rev. 11:12. And they heard a great voice from heaven saying unto them, Come up hither. And they ascended up to heaven in a cloud; and their enemies beheld them.

(Apostle John (be a witness) Rev 10 > 11 & Antipas, My Faithful Witness Rev 2.)

Ussher Annals - 4071a AM, 4780 JP, 67 AD 6954. Meanwhile there was a great dissention throughout all Judea. Some wanted to continue the war, while others wanted to remain under the protection of the Romans. As a result, whole troops of thieves were gathered together all over Judea, who plundered those wanting peace. Laden with their plunder, they were received into Jerusalem, where they spread murders, dissensions, discords and rapines abroad. First, they imprisoned Antipas, together with a great many noblemen and the chief men of the city. Soon after that, they killed them without any trial, having falsely accused them of intending to surrender the city to the Romans.

The Ten Commandments

1. Thou shalt have no other gods before me.
2. Thou shalt not make unto thee any graven images.
3. Thou shalt not take the Lord's name in vain.
4. Remember the Sabbath Day to keep it holy.
5. Honor thy Father and thy Mother
6. Thou shalt not kill.
7. Thou shalt not commit adultery.
8. Thou shalt not steal.
9. Thou shalt not bear false witness.
10. Thou shalt not covet thy neighbor's house, wife or possessions.

Matthew 28:16. Then the eleven disciples went away into Galilee, to the mountain which Jesus had appointed for them. 17. And when they saw Him, they worshiped Him; but some doubted. 18. Then Jesus came and spoke to them, saying, "All authority has been given to Me in heaven and on earth. 19. "Go therefore and make disciples of all the nations, baptizing them in the name of the Father and of the Son and of the Holy Spirit, 20. "teaching them to observe all things that I have commanded you; and lo, I am with you always, even to the end of the age." Amen.

The secular world recognizes that these twelve men, along with the replacement Apostle Paul, changed the world. The world also recognizes the persecution of these men and the countless Christians of Church history. PBS frequently airs these types of history programs. Looking for a secular hope in a seemingly hopeless and troubled world maybe?

But how did they change the world or history? Was it because God's Spirit activated a conscience in the hearts of the world's leadership toward the people they were responsible for?

It took time and of course there were periods of success and failure in these areas, with wars waged between the forces of good and evil to maintain stability and a conscience toward God.

Can we say that if God's people are not actively engaged in accurately proclaiming the Truth of God's Word (confront not condemn?), God's Spirit is not activated and bad things happen?

Today's Church theologies (again...!) seem to be condemning the depravity of the world and focusing on a 'futuristic' Kingdom where Jesus comes back and rules and everything will be reconciled.

After 40 years of Bible and history studies I do see a strong indication that the Kingdom is now, until Jesus 2nd Coming to rescue us (like in the days of Noah, 2 Peter 2, Mt 24:37). And then, a New Heavens and Earth?

In summary, history, both individually and collectively, particularly in the area of Church and secular leadership, is what we make of it. And, like salvation (Biblical/ intellectual input and proper emotional responses: our part commitment / God's part security), we are responsible and live with the consequences.

Have to add Apostle Paul to Heroes List. A Hebrew of Hebrews who wrote majority of New Testament Books. Traveled extensively and spoke to Churches and world leaders laying the foundation for future Church success. >>

Liberal or theological types *, with a 'depraved agenda', are not going to change the Inspiration of the original Manuscripts of Scripture or their authors, or dates, or even Scripture itself, and only accumulating eternal judgement on themselves and temporal judgement on all of us, just to promote their -ism's-.

Back in the early 1980's I was part of a very conservative Presbyterian Denomination. You know 6 Days, History, Will of the Creature, Biblical Inerrancy, etc. They were a spinoff group from the 1930's liberal churches who had decided that the Bible was not so inerrant after all. Even made their own Bible translation to alter our way of thinking to theirs. What KJV?

We are back there again, and to be honest have been here for some time (1984?). You know almost universalism (or that other easy believe'ism, exclusive'ism), anything goes, and the Bible is what we think it says, or should say.

Rev 20 and 1000 years is the first 1000 years of the Church, and the success they had, 1st Resurrection (of the Church, not individuals). 2033 will be 2000 years since Jesus left. 2054 will mark the 2nd 1000 years of the NT Church. Will there be a 2nd Resurrection, of the Church?

They probably broke up over Premil/Aumil & No Will/Free Will, etc. Sound familiar? 1054 AD Great Church Schism. Or the 'Ism Schism'.

* NT writers seem to have learned from Jesus directly? (Gal. 1:11-12). To ascribe it to anyone else is liberalism'

Rev 12 is about the Woman, or the Church. Mary, birth (Satan/Rome/Herod), death and ascension of Jesus, Paul's 1260 days in the wilderness of Damascus (Gal 1 17-18: after 3 years, +15 days, +convincing – why not? Fits the schedule.), Satan cast down to pursue the Church, the 10 Kings of Rev 17 overcome by the Lamb (empire to north at time of Constantine), Rome and Constantinople (Byzantine 1000?) the two wings of the eagle protecting the church in its beginnings, the Kings of Europe (of the earth) protecting the Reformers from the flood of a corrupted Rome, the continuing mission to conquer the world for Christ: Christian Europe & America for centuries and the 'Go Ye Mission' now falling away to liberalism and Babel chaos, along with the rest of the world.

Agree to Disagree? Soon, what is truth? How about if we Agree to Agree on Real-ism?

I am just a 'will of the creature' guy who believes the Kingdom is now. It is what we make of it, with God's help or curse, of course. Responsibility? I was mentored by WWII Joshua's who played to win, for us...

Historical precedents like Hebrews 3 and 4 and our 'falling away', where Heroes of Faith (Moses, Martin Luther, Jesus & Future 2nd Coming) have to rescue us because we minimize the Book of the Law, starting with the 6 Days Creation to the 10 Commandments to the 7th Day Rest. Maybe we do not break the Big 10, but do we culturally do our best to insure that others don't, especially against us and our offspring. What the Spirit says to 7 Churches?

or a subversive attempt to de-inspiration-ize parts of Scripture that do not agree with their way of thinking.

The Apostle John, stayed with Jesus through it all, and now in Heaven with Jesus, and Antipas. Who? And the O.T. Saints. When? A Great Cloud of Witness. *

Matthew 4:21. And going on from there, He saw two other brothers, James the son of Zebedee, and John his brother, in the boat with Zebedee their father, mending their nets. And He called them, 22. and immediately they left the boat and their father, and followed Him.

Luke 9:53. But they did not receive Him, because His face was set for the journey to Jerusalem. 54. And when His disciples James and John saw this, they said, "Lord, do You want us to command fire to come down from heaven and consume them, just as Elijah did?"

John 16:15. And Simon Peter followed Jesus, and so did another disciple. Now that disciple was known to the high priest, and went with Jesus into the courtyard of the high priest. 16. But Peter stood at the door outside. Then the other disciple, who was known to the high priest, went out and spoke to her who kept the door, and brought Peter in. 17. Then the servant girl who kept the door said to Peter, "You are not also one of this Man's disciples, are you?" He said, "I am not."

John 19:25. Now there stood by the cross of Jesus His mother, and His mother's sister, Mary the wife of Clopas, and Mary Magdalene. 26. When Jesus therefore saw His mother, and the disciple whom He loved standing by, He said to His mother, "Woman, behold your son!" 27. Then He said to the disciple, "Behold your mother!" And from that hour that disciple took her to his own home.

Revelation 1:9. I, John, both your brother and companion in tribulation, and in the kingdom and patience of Jesus Christ, was on the island that is called Patmos for the word of God and for the testimony of Jesus Christ.

Revelation 10:10. And I took the little book out of the angel's hand and ate it, and it was as sweet as honey in my mouth. But when I had eaten it, my stomach became bitter. 11. And he said to me, "You must prophesy again about many peoples, nations, tongues, and kings."

Revelation 11:1. Then I was given a reed like a measuring rod. And the angel stood, saying, "Rise and measure the temple of God, the altar, and those who worship there. 2. "But leave out the court which is outside the temple, and do not measure it, for it has been given to the Gentiles. And they will tread the holy city under foot for forty-two months. 3. "And I will give power to my two witnesses, and they will prophesy one thousand two hundred and sixty days, clothed in sackcloth." 4. These are the two olive trees and the two lampstands standing before the God of the earth.

11. Now after the three and a half days the breath of life from God entered them, and they stood on their feet, and great fear fell on those who saw them.

12. And they heard a loud voice from heaven saying to them, "Come up here." And they ascended to heaven in a cloud, and their enemies saw them.

The second witness? My guess: Revelation 2:13. "I know your works, and where you dwell, where Satan's throne is. And you hold fast to My name, and did not deny My faith even in the days in which Antipas was My faithful martyr, who was killed among you, where Satan dwells.

Ussher's Annals: 4071a AM, 4780 JP, 67 AD > 6954. Meanwhile there was a great dissension throughout all Judea. Some wanted to continue the war, while others wanted to remain under the protection of the Romans. As a result, whole troops of thieves were gathered together all over Judea, who plundered those wanting peace. Laden with their plunder, they were received into Jerusalem, where they spread murders, dissensions, discords and rapines abroad. First, they imprisoned Antipas, together with a great many noblemen and the chief men of the city. Soon after that, they killed them without any trial, having falsely accused them of intending to surrender the city to the Romans.

4073b AM, 4783 JP, 70 AD 6978. Jerusalem was destroyed on a Saturday. {*Dio, l. 65. (7) 8:271}

*Up: Mt. 27:50-53, Away: Acts 1:9, Home: Dan. 7:13, Back: Rev. 1:7. If a lot of prophecy has already happened, the Kingdom is now. A lot work to get done.

Two thieves meet the Author/Finisher of Life in the ultimate reality. One stops mocking and finds eternal life. The other, eternal death? Was it a 'Godly coin flip' or was it one man who, with an 'ongoing conscience issue', found resolution with God by 'humbly' facing reality?

Luke 23:39. Then one of the criminals who were hanged blasphemed Him, saying, "If You are the Christ, save Yourself and us." 40. But the other, answering, rebuked him, saying, "Do you not even fear God, seeing you are under the same condemnation? 41. "And we indeed justly, for we receive the due reward of our deeds; but this Man has done nothing wrong." 42. Then he said to Jesus, "Lord, remember me when You come into Your kingdom." 43. And Jesus said to him, "Assuredly, I say to you, today you will be with Me in Paradise."

Back in 75' I had my own reality moment. I started reading the Bible, from Genesis. At first the history (or the intellectual reality) grabbed me. Weeks later after reading of the 'two thieves', I did a 'repentant thief thing'. Almost immediately I felt the emotional reality with God's Spirit. I was baptized by the Spirit, and He has been confirming it with my spirit ever since (ouch). A Genesis to Revelation Experience: "intellectually and emotionally".

And unlike the 'rescued thief' my life in this existence continues, and of course we have the ups and downs of certainty of a decision. I suppose the verses in 1st John do/should keep us on a steady course of purpose and fulfillment:

1 John 2:1
My little children, these things I write to you, that you may not sin. And if anyone sins, we have an Advocate with the Father, Jesus Christ the righteous. 2. And He Himself is the propitiation for our sins, and not for ours only but also for the whole world. 3. Now by this we know that we know Him, if we keep His commandments. 4. He who says, "I know Him," and does not keep His commandments, is a liar, and the truth is not in him. 5. But whoever keeps His word, truly the love of God is perfected in him. By this we know that we are in Him. 6. He who says he abides in Him ought himself also to walk just as He walked.

Mt 28:18. Then Jesus came and spoke to them, saying, "All authority has been given to Me in heaven and on earth. 19. "Go therefore and make disciples of all the nations, baptizing them in the name of the Father and of the Son and of the Holy Spirit, 20. "teaching them to observe all things that I have commanded you; and lo, I am with you always, even to the end of the age." Amen.

Exodus 20
(4th Commandment - The Sabbath)

11. For in six days the Lord made the heavens and the earth, the sea, and all that is in them, and rested the seventh day. Therefore the Lord blessed the Sabbath day and hallowed it.

2 Peter 3:7. But the heavens and the earth which now exist are kept in store by the same word, reserved for fire until the day of judgment and perdition of ungodly men. 8. But, beloved, do not forget this one thing, that with the Lord one day is as a thousand years, and a thousand years as one day.

1000 year ism's (Nowmil): According to the Ussher Chronology (Annals of the World), we have the significant years 3000 (Solomon's Temple Dedication) and years 4000 (Christ's Birth). Years being, since the creation.

If Abraham's birth occurred at a highlight of the post flood patriarchs, year 2000, we have 3 'highlights in Church history', and disintegration. Abraham in Ur after Salem breakup: City of Peace built by Noah and Shem (>Jeru'Salem) after the Babel Chaos.

Year 1000 would be 70 years after Adam's death and possibly Seth's peoples highlight in their war with Cain's people, followed by the Flood (1656) to rescue Noah and his family.

Year 5000 maybe like 996 AD, the highlight of the Mission, followed by Church ism schisms and the 'dark ages'. (Rev 20, 1st 1000 years of the New Testament Church).

Of course the year 6000 or like 1996 AD, maybe a highlight in the 'Gospel to the world era', followed by 9/11/2001.

A year that began to change everything. America (and Europe), once The Great Commission Centers falling to the Babel principles: Cultural & moral chaos? Maybe a future Spiritual Presence of the real Messiah in Israel? 7th Millennium, the 'age of the Messiah'? With usual degradation. (And Zech. 14 may be a clue to future.)

Disintegrating again? How about 7000, year 2996 AD? (2nd Peter 3:7-8) Is 7 millennia enough? Or too much?

How about Sunday, 10/23/2996 AD .001 GMT. The beginning of the end of everything? Day, Hour? No way. Month, Year? Maybe. Good a guess as any, but, mine is based on 'everything'. You can quote me if I wrong. Could not be 3996 AD or year 8000?

Of course there are smaller 'ups and downs' in between, i.e. revivals. But the major ones seem to indicate God working to reestablish the Churches Mission to glorify God & His Creation, bringing a message of Salvation 'available' to all of humanity.

Of course if we add the 3-4 year period of 'Jesus teaching in the synagogues' to Jesus' life (Luke 4:14-15), we sync secular dates with Biblical dates. Secular dating has Jesus born in 4 BC and Herod dying in 3 BC. Would proper dates from Scripture correct:

1 AD, would be the Year of our Lord. 2 AD would Herod's death and 4000 BC would be the year of Creation. Year 1, (996=1000; 1996=2000; 2996=3000 AD)

And as we see the world events unfolding today, they certainly could use some enlightenment of the Savior, the Great Commission, and the 10 Commandments (especially in our schools). What about our descendants? May have a long way to go. Nowwhat?

Mt 28:18. Then Jesus came and spoke to them, saying, "All authority has been given to Me in heaven and on earth. 19. "Go therefore and make disciples of all the nations, baptizing them in the name of the Father and of the Son and of the Holy Spirit, 20. "teaching them to observe all things that I have commanded you; and lo, I am with you always, even to the end of the age." Amen.

In another article, (Jethro, Another Priest Forever) I tried to build a case for the post flood patriarchs from Noah to possibly even Eber (4th from Noah) not being part of the Tower debacle, but were in a place called Salem (Peace). They may have been in the Tower area in the beginning. After all they were family and all spoke one language. The days of Peleg (5th from Noah) indicate a divided world.

But at some point and possibly very soon, I sense that God's leadership and their followers realized that God's people had no part with any chaotic godless endeavors. There was necessarily a place for them to go and God had a purpose for them: building a city on the hill. From Salem came Abraham's father Terah (9th from Noah – maybe a prior) to Ur, and eventually Abraham was called by God to build a new people of God that would eventually return to Canaan, via Ur, Canaan, Egypt and Canaan and eventually to build a new Salem on a hill under King David, Jerusalem (pray for peace).

After God confused their language and forced the Babel'onians to scatter, this action had worked until civilization developed the technology to reach out to each other and are now very much uniting again with English language (not hip-hop, I hope), European culture and technology, United Nations, Olympic Games, Evolutionary Science, etc. Some are uniting because of the Gospel that went with the technology, while others are uniting again, but in making a 'name, so we will not be scattered'. But this time, realistically nowhere to go.

If we follow current events, we do see a blending of cultures, of differing disciplines, as never before. Some is obviously necessary, some due to war or failing economies, but most of it is just bad management from 'powers that be'. Without Christian influence and disciplines, as at the Tower, there is mass confusion. We have been better at this in the past, but the future does not look good, unless the Church and governments understand the dynamics of World (the what) and Biblical (the why) Histories. It may be as simple (?) as a review and reinstatement of the Ten Commandments (or basic law and order). Of course the Church united in prayer would not hurt. And of course, some kind of war is inevitable. The Babel Pushback.

After Christ's Resurrection, the Great Commission, and the death of the OT Church, there were, necessarily, places to go. The resurrected NT Church of the first thousand years essentially reigned (Nero to Great Schism 54 AD to 1054 AD – making many converts is reigning – or the 1000 years of the Byzantine Empire) in Europe (via Rome) and even Asia and Africa (maybe influence in China, etc.) through Kings who worked with the Church and missionary activities and claimed divine authority.

Of course the church weakened (the devil is restrained when God's people are united in Spirit) and the Kings became suspect in their authority (especially the corrupted power of Rome at that time, and of course the divisive and unproductive ism's, as we have today). The following Dark Ages led to a revival. The world calls it a Renaissance, but it was more likely that the Reformation (Europe vs Rome) fueled the Renaissance.

After the Reformation, religious wars broke out in Europe – whose theology would reign. But missionary efforts continued. The Pilgrims of Plymouth fame represent a new place to go, with a new start, which eventually led to America, Independence from King George, and freedom of Religion guaranteed. Of course this led to more revolutions in Europe which overthrew the kings and replaced them with basically secular governments like America, but without God as the basis for its freedoms. Darwin and the Enlightenment saw to that – and the Church just watched (it does not matter) and some even joined in – if we compromise, they may listen to us, they said.

The Church and 'political correctness' or 'it is the white man's religion that is to blame': God originally inspired Christians to take the Gospel (and law and order) to the nations. It is those, on the giving and receiving side, who have rejected the Gospel who are the problem. I also believe the conventional wisdom was: if we fix it there, they won't all have to come here.

(The Migration and Victimology Crisis.)

Today in America we have an out of control Judiciary (humanist activism – 10 Commandments sub planted with 10 or more rights), Congress (not enough conservatives – give them what they want, not what they need), and a leadership and media who mock our country's Christian founding and responsibilities. We also have had a multigenerational education system dedicated to the proposition that 'all mankind is created equal under the eyes of humanism, unless you are deemed unnecessary' or 'survival of the fittest'. No wonder in world democracies (yes, America too) we do not vote for godly principles, we don't know what they are anymore (or at best, we are out voted).

Wait until the Church is faced with the dilemma: support gay marriage and abortion rights (who knows what else follows or is) or lose your tax exempt status. Goodbye 501C3, Hello 666.

And we have a world that has united under the name of let us say 'humanism' with its primary goal of building a Utopia (or another Tower) here on earth. In expediency and with all the disasters occurring, pending or imagined (even manufactured), the world has decided to throw off the Commandments of God in order to fix things 'our way' with the assumption that this universe is all there is. And now God's people have nowhere else to go. Or do we? Will we be Victors or submit to 'victimology'?

Revivals have occurred before haven't they? Should we give up and be part of that last generation that goes 'down in a blaze 'to' glory', during or before Jesus' has to return, to rescue us? Only good thing is 'we have somewhere else to go'. Journey's End to the 'Eternal Jerusalem' or 'Eternal Peace', at last.

Joel 3: Prophecy or History Fulfilled

Joel 3 - NIV84 {The Nations Judged}

1. In those days and at that time, when I restore the fortunes of Judah and Jerusalem, 2. I will gather all nations and bring them down to the Valley of Jehoshaphat. There I will < enter into judgment against them > concerning my inheritance, my people Israel, for they scattered my people among the nations and divided up my land.

Joel 3 - KJV 1611 {Let My People Go, Home}

1. For, behold, in those days, and in that time, when I shall bring again the captivity of Judah and Jerusalem, 2. I will also gather all nations, and will bring them down into the valley of Jehoshaphat, and < will plead with them > there for my people and for my heritage Israel, whom they have scattered among the nations, and parted my land.

In 1611 it was prophecy; in 1948 it became history; in 1984 it became prophecy?

The Jews return to Israel in 1948: An event in world history that reminded the multitudes of God's intervention for His people, and the valley of decision we must all experience - God's ultimate intervention, in the place where Jesus, God's Son, was prophesied for four thousand years, born, lived, died, resurrected, for the sins of all people (those who believe it!).

70 AD, World War 1 (Ottoman Empire loses Palestine), World War 2 (sympathy for Jews), 1948: Israel returns > 1967: 6 Day War. Until the 2nd Coming.

Wikipedia excerpts: Along with these aerial attacks Jordanian troops also crossed the armistice lines and took (1948 – Valley of Jehoshaphat) Government House, the UN headquarters on the Biblical “Hill of Evil Counsel” in the no-man’s land between the two countries, directly threatening Israeli positions in southern Jerusalem, and finally provoking a counterattack.

Again, quoting King Hussein: At 12:30 on that 5th of June came the first Israeli response to the combined bombing by the Jordanians, Iraqis and Syrians. (Hussein, p 68) : By 8 PM on June 7 both sides had accepted a UN cease fire ending the fighting on the West Bank, leaving Israel in complete control of the territory.

David Rubinger's famed photograph of IDF paratroopers at Jerusalem's Western Wall shortly after its capture. From left to right: Zion Karasenti, Yitzhak Yifat, and Haim Oshri, David's mighty men.

Joel 3:14. Multitudes, multitudes in the valley of decision: for the day of the Lord is near in the valley of decision. 15. The sun and the moon shall be darkened, and the stars shall withdraw their shining. 16. The Lord also shall roar out of Zion, and utter his voice from Jerusalem; and the heavens and the earth shall shake: but the Lord will be the hope of his people, and the strength of the children of Israel. 17. So shall ye know that I am the Lord your God dwelling in Zion, my holy mountain: then shall Jerusalem be holy, and there shall no strangers pass through her any more.

James Ussher's Annals of the World Excerpt:

From the Epistle to the Reader: For who does not know history's first law to be that an author must not dare to tell anything but the truth? And its second that he must be bold to tell the whole truth? That there must be no suggestion of partiality anywhere in his writings? Nor of malice? {*Cicero, De Oratore, l. 2. c. 15. 3:243,254}

Censorinus dedicated the book, De Die Natali, to Quintus Caerellius on his birthday in 238 AD. The first part dealt with human life and its origins and the second part dealt with time and its divisions. In his preface he wrote {Censorinus, De Die Natali, l. 1. c. 20.}

If the origin of the world had been known to man, I would have started there. A little later, speaking of this time: {Censorinus, De Die Natali, l. 1. c. 21.} Whether time had a beginning or whether it always was, the exact number of years cannot be known.

Therefore Ptolemy, from his book Astronomical Calculations, concerning the creation and history of the world, stated that this is beyond the knowledge of man: {Ptolemy, Great Syntaxis, l. 3.} To find the details of the history of the whole world or such an immense period of time, I think is beyond us who desire to learn and know the truth.

Julius Maternus Firmicus, in his discourse on birthdays, stated concerning the creation of the world (as received from Aesculapius and Anubis): {Julius Maternus Firmicus, l. 3. c. 2.}

That was not the creation of the world. Nor, indeed, did the world have any certain day for its beginning. Nor was there anything existing at the time when the world was formed by the wisdom of the divine understanding and provident deity.

Nor could man in his human frailty so far extend himself, that he could easily conceive or unfold the world's origin.

Even among Christians, that most renowned chronographer Dionysius Petavius, when asked his opinion concerning the creation of the world and the number of years from creation down to us, made this disclaimer: {Petavius, De Doctrina Temporum, l. 9. c. 2. The number of years from the beginning of the world to our time cannot be known, nor in any way found out, without divine revelation.

Philastrius Brixienis disagreed with him and called it heresy: {Philastrius, De Heres., c. 6. p. 63.} To know the number of the years from the creation of the world is uncertain and men do not know the time of it.

Lactantius Firmianus made this bold assertion: {*Lactantius, Divine Institutions, l. 7. c. 14. 7:211}

We who are trained by the Holy Scriptures in the knowledge of truth, do know both the beginning and the end of the world.

James Ussher 1581-1656. Annals first published 1658 and republished in English in 2003. In 1658 this work was praised in the secular world and the religious world as a scholarly best educated guess.

I started working on the Annals in the form of charts to outline the entire work in 2002. At first the work of 2003 was praised, much like the work of 1658.

But it did not take long for the secular and the religious world to realize that this work threatened their belief system, or their ism, and discounted and even undermined the entire work.

When Jesus gave The Great Commission about taking the Gospel and Commandments (or law and order) to all the earth an underlying assumption could/should be that we also back up our claims with the historical reality of the claims of the Bible. Starting with Gen. 1.

At times the Church has done this and been successful in fulfilling Christ's Commission as well as God's First Command to fill the earth and subdue it (Gen 1:28). And of course we have those times, like now, when we disregard reality and parts of the Bible, and then the earth and the Devil subdues the Church.

The Five Articles Of The Remonstrance 1610

Article I. That God, by an eternal, unchangeable purpose in Jesus Christ, his Son, before the foundation of the world, hath determined, out of the fallen, sinful race of men, to save in Christ, for Christ's sake, and through Christ, those who, through the grace of the Holy Ghost, shall believe on this his Son Jesus, and shall persevere in this faith and obedience of faith, through this grace, even to the end; and, on the other hand, to leave the incorrigible and unbelieving in sin and under wrath, and to condemn them as alienate from Christ, according to the word of the Gospel in John iii. 36: "He that believeth on the Son hath everlasting life; and he that believeth not the Son shall not see life; but the wrath of God abideth on him," and according to other passages of Scripture also.

Article II. That, agreeably thereto, Jesus Christ, the Savior of the world, died for all men and for every man, so that he has obtained for them all, by his death on the cross, redemption, and the forgiveness of sins; yet that no one actually enjoys this forgiveness of sins, except the believer, according to the word of the Gospel of John iii. 16: "God so loved the world that he gave his only-begotten Son, that whosoever believeth in him should not perish, but have everlasting life"; and in the First Epistle of John ii. 2: "And he is the propitiation for our sins; and not for ours only, but also for the sins of the whole world."

Article III. That man has not saving grace of himself, nor of the energy of his free-will, inasmuch as he, in the state of apostasy and sin, can of and by himself neither think, will, nor do anything that is truly good (such as having faith eminently is); but that it is needful that he be born again of God in Christ, through his Holy Spirit, and renewed in understanding, inclination, or will, and all his powers, in order that he may rightly understand, think, will, and effect what is truly good, according to the word of Christ, John xv. b: "Without me ye can do nothing."

Article IV. That this grace of God is the beginning, continuance, and accomplishment of an good, even to this extent, that the regenerate man himself, without that prevent or assisting: awakening, following, and co-operative grace, can neither think, will, nor do good, nor withstand any temptations to evil; so that all good deeds or movements that can be conceived must be ascribed to the grace of God in Christ. But, as respects the mode of the operation of this grace, it is not irresistible, inasmuch as it is written concerning many that they have resisted the Holy Ghost, -Acts vii., and elsewhere in many places.

Article V. That those who are incorporated into Christ by a true faith, and have thereby become partakers of his life giving spirit, have thereby full power to strive against Satan, sin, the world, and their own flesh, and to win the victory, it being well understood that it is ever through the assisting grace of the Holy Ghost; and that Jesus Christ assists them through his Spirit in all temptations, extends to them his hand; and if only they are ready for the conflict and desire his help, and are not inactive, keeps them from falling, so that they, by no craft or power of Satan, can be misled, nor plucked out of Christ's hands, according to the word of Christ, John x. 28: "Neither shall any man pluck them out of my hand." But whether they are capable, through negligence, of forsaking again the first beginnings of their life in Christ, of again returning to this present evil world, of turning away from the holy doctrine which was delivered them, of losing a good conscience, of becoming devoid of grace, that must be more particularly determined out of the Holy Scriptures before we ourselves can teach it with the full persuasion of our minds.

The Pride of the Theology (stiff knee) versus the Humility of the Gospel (bent knee).

Romans 1:16 For I am not ashamed of the gospel of Christ: for it is the power of God unto salvation to every one that believeth; to the Jew first, and also to the Greek. 17. For therein is the righteousness of God revealed from faith to faith: as it is written, The just shall live by faith.

'Belgic Waffle Syndrome'
Or even the
'Cultural Meltdown Of Today',

Many big names say: "I have no choice, (hem and haw; election & Predestination)". Or what is at the 'book table' becomes the belief in the churches. A contextual argument, but Jesus says "whosoever". 93 whosoevers in New Testament NKJ. (Does mankind's section heading over Roman's 9 and changing elect to chosen. Negate Jesus' whosoevers?")

John 3:16-18 and John 12:46. The "Ultimate Tie Breaker." John 12:46 I am come a light into the world, that whosoever believeth on me should not abide in darkness.....

And Paul uses the same thought in Romans 9:33, and the contextual element of trust in Ephesians 1:13. Romans 10? Even the Reformation verses Romans 1:16-17. Wow.

The pride of the preology over the humility of the Gospel. Or we cry "holiness and chosen since the foundation of the world". A gospel of prideful intellectualism and a desperate need to impose it on others. 'Ultimate easy believe'ism'.

Augustine, like Calvin seemed more intellectual than emotional. If their 'heart/soul' was in it, ok. But, the 'intellectual' (humbly submit to a choice?) followers of Augustine trashed Origen as the 1st Arminian (or Grace is cooperative). God has spoken, we respond appropriately, or not, or renege on a prior decision.

Romans 8:29 & Ephesians 1: God's foreknowledge and actions for those who will bend the knee to Jesus: a prayer for calling, chosen to service.

Ephesians 2:8 - Faith in Grace.
Election:our part-Productivity and Predestination:God's part-Security.

To choose or not to choose. That is the question. If all the world is a stage, and all is predetermined, who cares about the slings of outrageous fortune? But aye the rub, if all is just foreknown, then everything makes perfect sense, including the final act.

And alas, poor Yorick, I knew him well, but what of judgment day? To be, or not to be right with God, that is the real question.

Not sure if Shakespeare (1564-1616) was a Christian. As a learned man I am sure he was aware of the 'free will debate', still a tempest.

Sheep are sheep and goats are goats, but was he given an adequate understanding of the choice we all have to make? Are we chosen because we are electable and finish our performance? See 1 John 2.

1 John 2 (NKJV)

1. My little children, these things I write to you, that you may not sin. And if anyone sins, we have an Advocate with the Father, Jesus Christ the righteous.
2. And He Himself is the propitiation for our sins, and not for ours only but also for the whole world.
3. Now by this we know that we know Him, if we keep His commandments.
4. He who says, "I know Him," and does not keep His commandments, is a liar, and the truth is not in him.
5. But whoever keeps His word, truly the love of God is perfected in him. By this we know that we are in Him.
6. He who says he abides in Him ought himself also to walk just as He walked.

Luke 8 (NKJV)

11. "Now the parable is this: The seed is the word of God.
12. "Those by the wayside are the ones who hear; then the devil comes and takes away the word out of their hearts, lest they should believe and be saved.
13. "But the ones on the rock are those who, when they hear, receive the word with joy; and these have no root, who believe for a while and in time of temptation fall away.
14. "And the ones that fell among thorns are those who, when they have heard, go out and are choked with cares, riches, and pleasures of life, and bring no fruit to maturity.
15. "But the ones that fell on the good ground are those who, having heard the word with a noble and good heart, keep it and bear fruit with patience.

On a prior Sunday a musician in the Church Band played the keyboard, prayed, and gave sort of a soliloquy about life and its trials, and of course God's Solution, The Bible and Jesus.

And of course I talked to him about it, and of course we kind of have our differences about how we interpret God's Word. His grace is not cheap, but it is limited, and of course my grace is not cheap, but it is cooperative. Agree to disagree?

Sort of sounds like Shakespeare's time, just after the Protestant Reformation, and just before the English Civil War. Who knows, maybe Cain and Abel had the same issues. Of course their parents decided they had a right to choose, to disobey God.

I grew up just after WWII and times were tough. I can still taste war surplus foods like powered eggs and milk, handsaws, motor less mowers etc.

But throughout my life things got better until now, I am totally spoiled. Just like the rest of us.

But I had good work opportunities and worked with a lot of good people, of all flavors by the way, to improve life, in the world. Of course we had a few who had petty arguments and accusations, and tried to disrupt everything. But they were minimized.

Today I am afraid these people are maximized by a manipulative media and self-seeking politicians and lawyers and schools and even some 'stiff kneed' theological types and a somewhat unaware populace.

And we are again involved in a great civil war. So what is the solution to godless behavior in our lands?

I really got into Hebrews 11 and stand up for them and countless others who stood up for Christ's Great Commission. Need new Heroes of Faith to stand up and be counted. <http://historyreally.org/pitcairn.html>

Christian Terrorism: those in the Church who are embarrassed to say they had 'a free will emotional/intellectual encounter with Christ' (if they ever had one), imposing their spiritual depravity on others. My thoughtful side.

But my compassionate side says:

What do we say to those who do not win life's lottery and experience that 'eternal weeping and gnashing of teeth', all because they did not have a choice? Our God would do that?

But my experiential side says:

The pride of the theology replaces the humility of the Gospel and sheep confused.

The unproductive nature of the theology versus the humility of fulfilling the Great Commission. With responsible governments.

If we have basic truths and then allow varying opinions (agree to disagree) then we have as 'they' say, a mystery. Soon, what is truth, and we have religious and cultural chaos.

Much like the Pharisees of Israel at the time of Jesus and John the Baptist, influencing young men like Paul to persecute true believers.

But my contextual side says:

If we only read the Gospels, we can be easily be liberalized. Especially the Sermon on the Mount.

If we only read the Epistles, we can fall into the 'Chosen' mentality, and eventually liberalized.

If we only read the Old Testament, we never get to the fulfillment of the New Testament. Or if only the New, never understand the Beginning.

If we only read Revelations, or focus on prophecy (or mostly completed), we are looking for a way out of being responsible.

If we consider it all, then find out that OT Israel was chosen for a purpose and not all were saved (Rom. 9:6). Bring the 1st Advent of Christ.

Could say the same about the Church. Chosen to bring the 2nd Advent of Christ.

Daniel 9 - KJV 24. Seventy weeks are determined upon thy people and upon thy holy city, to finish the transgression, and to make an end of sins, and to make reconciliation for iniquity, and to bring in everlasting righteousness, and to seal up the vision and prophecy, and to anoint the most Holy.

25. Know therefore and understand, that from the going forth of the commandment to restore and to build Jerusalem unto the Messiah the Prince shall be seven weeks, and threescore and two weeks: the street shall be built again, and the wall, even in troublous times.

26. And after threescore and two weeks shall Messiah be cut off, but not for himself: and the people of the prince that shall come shall destroy the city and the sanctuary; and the end thereof shall be with a flood, and unto the end of the war desolations are determined.

27. And he shall confirm the covenant with many for one week: and in the midst of the week he shall cause the sacrifice and the oblation to cease, and for the overspreading of abominations he shall make it desolate, even until the consummation, and that determined shall be poured upon the desolate.

2 Chronicles 7:14. "if My people who are called by My name will humble themselves, and pray and seek My face, and turn from their wicked ways, then I will hear from heaven, and will forgive their sin and heal their land.

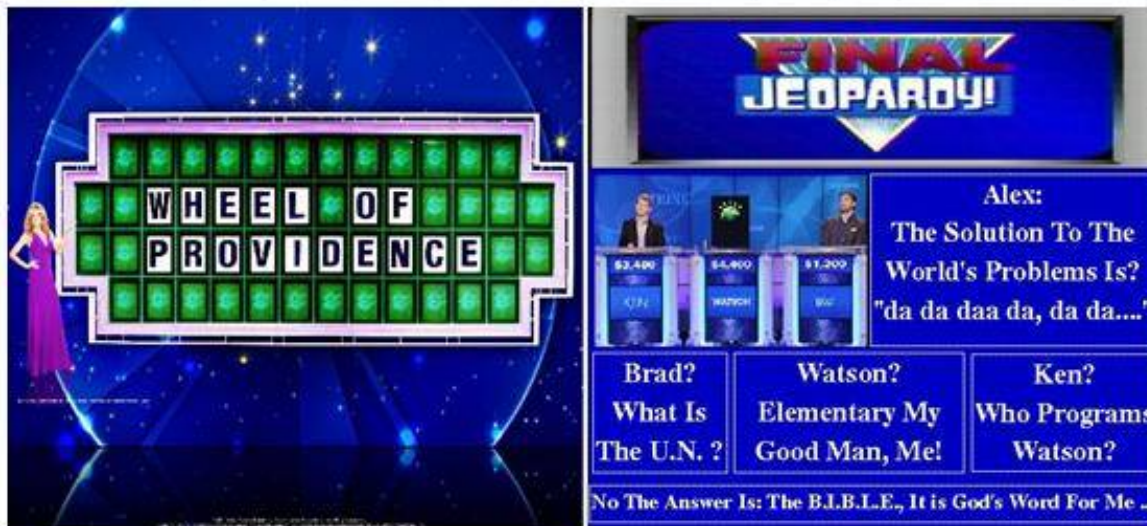

For 4000 years (After Adam & Eve sinned, and showed remorse, God slew an animal, first example of death and a sacrifice – Abel showed his acceptance – Cain his defiance –, God made clothes to cover their shame...) human rights and technology stagnated. But then one called Jesus of Nazareth (the only Son of God, and ultimate sacrifice for our sins), offered us hope for eternal life with Him, for those who would have truly believed in Him. He told His disciples to take not only the Gospel to the nations, but also His Commands (Big 10) or law and order. The Gospel is about God's Law & Order: Conviction + Repentance = Justification. The nations being the original Tower of Babel people who repopulated the earth. And I am sure this repopulation was rarely peaceful. And as we have today the re-blending of cultures, differing in disciplines is rarely peaceful, without law.

Christians (first 1000 years) eventually conquered their known world for Christ, including governments who elevated 'human responsibilities'. For centuries, technology, science, medicine, arts, religion, etc. were developed to take human progress to the nations, as well as the Gospel. Of course there were those on both the giving and receiving side who abused the Commission. And I guess we could say many abandoned the Commission, or tainted it with our divisive –isms-. Unless we have the Total Commitment, we basically have what we have today. How should we then live and die? We need to teach lessons from the Bible that inspires us to interact with our world, not condemn it. Soon to complete 2nd 1000,, Until He has to Return. Y3K? John 3:17. For God sent not his Son into the world to condemn the world; but that the world through him might be saved.

A few weeks ago I watched the Jeopardy Team Tournament. The best champions since early 2000 competed. Of course Alex is 78 (believe it or not, with cancer) and still as sharp and enthusiastic as ever. Reminds me of Joshua 14:11 and being as strong as ever (the strong and courageous guy). Of course he grew up making bricks for Pharaoh, spent 40 years in the wilderness (thinking about Moses & Big 10), and conquered the promise land as God instructed that generation.

Alex is part of the generation I grew up with and since the mid 80's he and Pat & Vanna have been a reminder of that time period. Inspired by WWII heroes. It was also a time of Ronald Reagan and the economic and spiritual revival of that time (Graham and DJ Kennedy filling up the churches again with an invitational Gospel). I also got my 30 year ground floor PC computer job then and found Jesus too. Does not get any better than that: a reason to be productive. Thank God I avoided those isms, about Him.

Alex and I also grew up under a Joshua and Caleb, or the greatest generation. A time of integrity, honesty, and development, etc.

No affirmative action back then. It was about personal responsibility and achievement, and church goes. Even if one was impaired somehow, there was compassion, assistance, and encouragement. People of all flavors understood and worked together. Of course there were trouble makers but they were admonished and punished for their behavior.

Today, this is not the norm. How far we have fallen. Everyone is a victim and deserves compensation. Or it is not your fault.

Liberalism! Promoted by not only by deceitful political forces but also the church in America. It is too hard to make people responsible and we take the easy way out.

A conservative church or government is about fixing the problem, not more band aids.

Do we need a brick making episode to help us realize this? Or a wilderness experience. Hate to see a great depression and another war.

Time for Double Jeopardy? Or at least God's people united in the Gospel, and not some ism like liberal-ism, or all the other isms we have, like 'no personal responsibility-ism'.

Back in 85, as a young Christian, I was 'coerced' into VBS. 10 Commandments? Saw the movie back in 62. Big Box Office hit, and my first and lasting exposure to the Bible and basic Christianity. Sounds like fun.

Of course the kids knew more than I did. Even with the study guide. 1st day we exhausted basic do's and don'ts. 4 more days? Now what?

- | | |
|---|---|
| 1. Thou shalt have no other gods before me. | 5. Honor thy Father and thy Mother |
| 2. Thou shalt not make unto thee any graven images. | 6. Thou shalt not kill. |
| 3. Thou shalt not take the Lord's name in vain. | 7. Thou shalt not commit adultery. |
| 4. Remember the Sabbath Day to keep it holy. | 8. Thou shalt not steal. |
| | 9. Thou shalt not bear false witness. |
| | 10. Thou shalt not covet thy neighbor's house, wife or possessions. |

In the 10 Commandments Movie (well Exodus 2:11-12), Moses killed (?) the Egyptian. Did Moses murder the Egyptian or did he execute justice on a murderer? And I suppose, that day 'chose to be with the people of God'. Hebrews 11:24-28. The rest of the week, was very interesting. There are 9 more Commandments!

(if forewarned of consequences, shame on us)

Currently, I am thinking, with the liberalization of America and 'The Great Commission', are we, the Church, being 'coerced' into the same liberal attitude? Did we forget Christ's last words to us?

Matthew 28:19. "Go therefore and make disciples of all the nations, baptizing them in the name of the Father and of the Son and of the Holy Spirit, 20. "teaching them to observe all things that I have commanded you; and lo, I am with you always, even to the end of the age." Amen.

Today I hear 'mercy to the afflicted'. Band-Aids? What about 'justice to the offender' (with proper mercy of course – all lives matter, even the unborn)? We need both to walk 'humbly before our God'. Else, we and our offspring live and die with lawlessness, until the 2nd Coming for the final rescue of 'a remnant'. 'Go Ye Mission' aborted!

Micah 6:8. He has shown you, O man, what is good; and what does the Lord require of you but to do justly, to love mercy, and to walk humbly with your God?

Micah OT Prophet (and others), in a time of lawlessness, especially among leadership, warning of God's impending judgement.

The OT prophets had priests, hopefully with the Law, to instruct Kings and the people of God honoring behavior. Today we have the Church as priests to instruct. Or do we?

I have the beginnings of a 7 Millennium Theory which works out to about 978 years until the 2nd Coming. 2nd Peter 3. Adam may have seen the 1st Coming as soon? Now what?

We do need God Fearing politicians, judges, and 'lawyers' (and laws about lawyers – judicial and moral chaos between providers and clients, etc.), educators... that fight for Godly responsibility and moral stability.

Answers in Cosmology:

<http://historyreally.org/hist14.html>

I thought it may be time for a career change, like getting into video game technology.

At first I thought how about a video game called 'Donkey Kong' or 'Elephant Kong' or 'Back to the Future' or 'Everything is Free, if you vote for me. No responsible behavior too'.

But to be timely, I thought how about 'Space Invaders', or the 'Tower of Babel Revisited'. You know the game about a group of hard working and disciplined people living under laws based on God's Law.

These people are successful and develop a good food and technology chain with disciplined children ready to take over. Even have controlled immigration and strong borders. Even have well trained people to interact with other places, to lift them up also.

But then these people get lazy and forget how they got to this point, and then allow others, with a devious intent, to come in and take over by promoting 'myths and old wives tales' about the 'foundings and purpose'. Even religious people. Liberalized or dumbled down.

And of course the resulting chaos causes patriots or Heroes of Faith to rise up and object, but are shouted down or ignored or out voted by the misinformed masses.

And then these patriots move to another place and start to rebuild the 'good place' again. Of course at some point there are the indigenous peoples. Those of a like mind are welcoming but then the resistance already there or following complicates the interaction.

Call this game 'Risk and Reward'? Or call it 'The Great Commission Must Go Thru'? But then, these people get lazy and forget (or not reminded by its leadership thru His Word)....

(Jesus said take His Word, not the theologysms.)

Wow, people could play this game for centuries and the game could be very successful. Really?

Seriously, is this what God intended in:

Genesis 1:27. So God created man in His own image; in the image of God He created him; male and female He created them. 28. Then God blessed them, and God said to them, "Be fruitful and multiply; fill the earth and subdue it; have dominion over the fish of the sea, over the birds of the air, and over every living thing that moves on the earth."

Or when Jesus gave the Great Commission:

Matthew 28: 19. "Go therefore and make disciples of all the nations, baptizing them in the name of the Father and of the Son and of the Holy Spirit, 20. "teaching them to observe all things that I have commanded you; and lo, I am with you always, even to the end of the age." Amen

Or at the Temple dedication with Solomon:

2 Chron. 7:13. "When I shut up heaven and there is no rain, or command the locusts to devour the land, or send pestilence among My people,

14. "if My people who are called by My name will humble themselves, and pray and seek My face, and turn from their wicked ways, then I will hear from heaven, and will forgive their sin and heal their land.

15. "Now My eyes will be open and My ears attentive to prayer made in this place.

How do we win at this game? Be energized and remember? Prayerfully it will not take 'a wilderness experience' to motivate us, like the Hebrews in the desert 40 years, or WWII...

As a 'history guy', I look at today's cultural turmoil, and see that this really has happened before, again and again. I guess that means that we have had 'good times' in the past. I was born in November, 1944. A WWII baby and a pre-baby boomer. I grew up under the influence of the generation that did some pretty remarkable things. And most of my generation grew up with a 'pretty positive attitude' about the future. I would call that a 'good time'.

I guess we can argue about what caused the degeneration to our current time, and how do we reverse the trend. Of course nobody wants another WWII. And if we don't do something, we may have to deal with a WWII. I know a lot of people in the Church are looking forward to a glorious kingdom in the future. Even if it is, what is it going to take to get there?

Personally, after an intense study of history (Biblical and secular), I see the kingdom as now. May have started with Adam and Eve, and each generation having to deal with the Cain's of this world, and the loss of the Abel's. And throughout Biblical History we do see 'success stories' led by leadership like Noah, Abraham, Moses, Joshua, Sampson, David, Solomon... Hebrews 11 and Heroes of Faith.

And of course we have the New Testament Church that conquered their known world for Christ (Rev 20 1000). Of course came the bad times. Then we had the Reformers, the missionary movements of that time, the founders of America, the Abraham Lincolns, the Martin Luther Kings ... Speaking of the Reformation, 10/31/2017 marks 500 years (1517). The Reformers started looking at their Bibles (printing press) and realized the Church (original) had accumulated a lot of invalid traditions or -isms-. About 500 years before that in 1054 AD the Byzantine Church (Rome and Constantinople) broke up over -isms-. Great Ism Schism. Around 550 AD Justinian sought revival for Holy Rome Empire (pre Catholic Church).

About 500 years before that, the Christian Church began with New Testament Writings that debunked the -isms- of the Jews that Jesus ran into. About 500 years before that, Nehemiah and the guys completed rebuilding Solomon's Temple. And about 500 years before that, Solomon completed the first Temple. About 500 years before that, Israel was rescued from Egypt. About 500 years before that, God made the Promise to Abraham. About 500 years before that, Noah got off the Boat. About 750 years before that, Enoch walked with God. And about 750 years before that, God made everything. Three 500's. About 6000 total. Well, about.

I guess -isms- are a part of life, but what seems to really work well is getting back to Bible Basics, starting with the reasons for the Fall, and the Cure, the Gospel, the Great Commission. In 2033 it will be 2000 years since Jesus left. And in 2054 it will be 2000 since the non-Apostolic Church began. 4x500. Hate to wait that long before another Reformation.

Maybe now we can have a new reform movement: 'minimize the -isms-', fueled and sponsored by Unity in Truth. Jesus own words: John 17:19. "And for their sakes I sanctify Myself, that they also may be sanctified by the truth. 20. "I do not pray for these alone, but also for those who will believe in Me through their word; 21."that they all may be one, as You, Father, are in Me, and I in You; that they also may be one in Us, that the world may believe that You sent Me.

Day 1 - Sitting here with my morning coffee and thinking how quiet it is. Well, except for the racing, loud motorcycles, gunshots at convenience store, police activity, ambulances making another opioid run. Don't these people know about God's 10 Commandments?

Then I thought about the immeasurable decibel level of the uncountable explosions of the 1st Day of Creation, inflation, history, and the final deafening Big Bang at the end. Don't these people know about the focal point of history and God's Judgement on those who reject Jesus' Work on the Cross for those who would honor it? And at least, instill a 'fear of God'. Maybe we should speak louder? Good place to start: 'Who Created Us': Gen. 1:1. In the beginning God created the heavens and the earth.

And then explain 'lawlessness' and 'redemption' and the 10 Commandments, starting with #4 in our churches: Exodus 20:8. "Remember the Sabbath day, to keep it holy. 9. Six days you shall labor and do all your work, 10. but the seventh day is the Sabbath of the Lord your God. In it you shall do no work: you, nor your son, nor your daughter, nor your male servant, nor your female servant, nor your cattle, nor your stranger who is within your gates. 11. For in six days the Lord made the heavens and the earth, the sea, and all that is in them, and rested the seventh day. Therefore the Lord blessed the Sabbath day and hallowed it.

> 6 Days work for the world (&Lord), 1 Day for the Lord (&world).

Day 2 - Oh my! I guess God was prepping the universe for work on Day 3 and Earth. Infrastructure, an example of how we should work to improve lives. Christian and otherwise.

Sunday Josiah cut his hair and wore a baseball cap, with worship. Reminded me of 50&60's and better times. America was building infrastructure with a can do attitude and someone's word was honored, as well as God in our schools & culture. Not perfect, but a lot better.

Today politicians, lawyers, media and even some church leaders have us at each others throats. Wanna be politician and ex judge Roy Moore was a big advocate of the 10 Commandments. Good place to start, and need churches to follow suit, or jeans, or baseball caps. 'Little old lady from Pasadena', was on her way to church.

Day 3 - God creates Engineering and Botanical Sciences. And the first Arbor Day. And perfect food for biological life to follow. As I get older I am really getting into 'rabbit food'. Somewhat necessary too. Meat and chicken have been a staple in struggling cultures across time. Gen 9 says it is okay, now. Protein supplements? Yipes. Gen 9:6 also speaks to Man's blood and murder. Sixth Commandment foundation. I know we all struggle with this. But I still think Moses executed justice on a murderer(Ex. 2:11-13). And so much for abortion to save the planet. Do we just keep the Big 10, or work to enforce them, for our own well being? Another leadership issue.

Day 4 - 4 am coffee, looking up at stars and moon, waiting for the sun to come up, like the vegetation God created on Day 3. Question is, did the sun, moon, and stars already exist, or did God create them on Day 4? Gen. 1 V16 says God made 2 great lights, yet the moon is not a light, until it 'is set' (V17) properly. Stars too, to their purpose. Does it matter? Well it supports Inflation, Salvation History, to Big Bang Theory. Does it matter?

Gen. 1 is the foundation for everything. If we cannot reason it out properly, then all reason that follows is shaky. Like someone wants to 'sell' you an idea that muddies the waters about Science, Scripture, and most importantly, Salvation. Paul said 'come let us reason together'. And did Jesus say 'take His Gospel to the nations' not take our theology? Let their be lights!, V14.

Day 5 - Day 5, things that fly and swim, thanks to the previous Days activities. A bird watchers and anglers paradise. Fishing and magnificent drumsticks came after the Fall, and certainly after the Big Flood some 1650 years later. I am sure the good vegetation and food sources took time to recover after the Big Flood.

With perfect DNA can you imagine what these creatures looked like? And if Adam lived 930 years (even more since he was created as a mature adult, as was the universe) how long did other creatures live? And how old was some of mankind up until the Big Flood. If evil mankind can build a big ego in today's economy, how great was their ego when God said enough. Today, with technology and medical advances, how big will mankind's ego get when God says 'enough' for the second time. Of course, as always, there is saving humility, when we bend the knee to the God's provided sacrifice (looking forward and back), Jesus of Nazareth, born 4000 years after the First Day.

Day 6 - Land animals and 'creeping things', snakes? And then Adam and Eve. Snakes, 'The Serpent'? May be an indication of when angels were created, complete with the 'knowledge of good and evil'. And of course Satan tricked Adam and Eve (Day 7, Day8...) into the same mindset. The Fall, the 1st animal sacrifice, with the promise of the 'seed of the woman' to defeat Satan, Jesus, The Son of God.

Day 7 - God rests, or more appropriately, ceases from His Creative Work. The rest is history, until the 1st Coming and then the Coming 2nd, and the choice we all have to make. Of course some say, 'we have no choice'. The Big Distraction.

Today - Big question about predestination and depravity: are you 'humbly confessing submission to Christ', or 'proudly your status', and/or what your protestant pope says? Mt 16:15-18, Peter's Confession of Christ, the Rock of the Church. 10/31/2017 - Reform 500, again, again...

GOT GLOBAL WARMING CHILLS?

BE 'COOL' AND KNOW THAT 'HE' IS GOD.

GOT A BETTER CURE?

Psalm 137: Rest in the Lord, and wait patiently for Him; Do not fret because of him who prospers in his way, because of the man who brings wicked schemes to pass. 8. Cease from anger, and forsake wrath. Do not fret; it only causes harm.

2 Peter 3:10. But the day of the Lord will come as a thief in the night, in which the heavens will pass away with a great noise, and the elements will melt with fervent heat; both the earth and the works that are in it will be burned up.

Basic science is consistent with the biblical history and argues strongly against the global warming hypothesis. Melting glaciers and changing climates are not an indication of man-made global warming. These natural phenomena have been operating for thousands of years. Temperature histories are imprecise and unreliable. Global warming is built on an evolutionary earth history and an evolutionary time scale. Anything built on a faulty foundation cannot stand. Global warming is an offshoot of evolutionary thinking and is needlessly creating mass hysteria. God is in control of the earth, not man.

It can be expected that several trends evident since the Flood, however, will continue: sea level will rise as polar glaciers continue to melt, and deserts will expand. These trends, as we have shown, have little to do with CO₂, they are a consequence of a God-ordained event, the Flood. Governments with either ocean boundaries or deserts should consider how to efficiently and economically address these trends.

There is no viable justification either biblically or scientifically for limiting the generation of CO₂ or restricting logging of forests. In view of the great benefit of CO₂ it is absolutely unnecessary to consider spending billions of dollars to restrict something that is extremely good for mankind and the earth. We cannot properly understand creation apart from God's Word. Viewing global warming within a Bible-science perspective brings much needed clarity to this issue. As stated in Psalm 119:105, "Your word is a lamp to my feet and a light to my path." <https://answersingenesis.org/environmental-science/climate-change/a-proposed-bible-science-perspective-on-global-warming/>

The biblical history of the earth, contained in the first 11 chapters of the book of Genesis, provides a useful and sufficient framework for evaluating the current global warming issue. As we have seen, CO₂ is a natural atmospheric gas that is essential for man's existence. It is not a pollutant. The atmosphere is likely deficient in CO₂ compared with the original created atmosphere. Reducing CO₂ would definitely create problems, but increasing it will not. Burning fossil fuels merely returns CO₂ to its place of origin. Forests are to be used for man's benefit. They are not needed to produce O₂ and they have no intrinsic rights, but should be managed responsibly and effectively.

Many scientists believe that the specialized association between today's butterflies and flowering plants suggests that butterflies developed during the Cretaceous Period, often called the "Age of Flowering Plants," 65 million to 135 million years ago—a time when dinosaurs also roamed the earth. Evolutionary relationships among major Lepidopteran groups are not well understood. What we do know is that, despite the attention they receive from scientists and the public alike, butterflies are not the pinnacle of Lepidoptera evolution. One recent theory is that an obscure moth family, the Hedyllidae, represents the closest living relatives of the butterflies. Essentially, this theory suggests that butterflies are just a group of brightly colored moths.

Six Days of Work and Seventh Day Rest Defines The Perfection Of God.
Anything else begins the Compromise. Ask Adam & Eve: Did God say that?

Exodus 20:8. "Remember the Sabbath day, to keep it holy. 9. Six days you shall labor and do all your work, 10. but the seventh day is the Sabbath of the Lord your God. In it you shall do no work: you, nor your son, nor your daughter, nor your male servant, nor your female servant, nor your cattle, nor your stranger who is within your gates. 11. For in six days the Lord made the heavens and the earth, the sea, and all that is in them, and rested the seventh day. Therefore the Lord blessed the Sabbath day and hallowed it.

Day 1: All Matter (ether, water (?) collapses and hyper inflates.)
(Physical sciences created; engineering/biological, etc. to follow.)

Day 2: Infrastructure and water for plants.

Day 3: Grains for whole wheat flatbread (lettuce, tomato, works).

Day 4: Sun for plants, Moon ('set' 24/7/360 operation, Stars too).

Day 5: Tuna and birds (rooster and hen = first egg).

Day 6: Mankind and beef (Philly Cheese Steak, mayo, provolone).

Day 7: God rests..., mankind falls..., builds Subway..., history...

God builds Holy 'Super Subway to Heaven'

Jesus, Son of God, Son of Mankind.

Got a ticket to ride? Fare is $0, but must see Jesus,

'The Conductor, or The Author and Finisher of our Faith'.

Last Day: Gravity, created first day overcomes inflation: Big Bang.

A rose by any other name, would it smell as sweet?

Shakespeare's tragedy of love not permitted.
A worldly intelligence would solve the problem by ignoring the overall context of common 'law' by dismissing parent's right about their children.

It may sound intelligent, but it is wise?

Another tragedy involves those who would ignore the overall context of 'God's Word' in order to placate those who are uncomfortable with Genesis 1-9: perfection created in 6 days, sin and death revealed, redemption promised, and ultimate judgment demonstrated.

It may sound intelligent, but it is wise?

Intelligence + Wisdom = Humility, of believing the Good News and working together on Jesus' Great Commission.

Make Christ Enlightenment Great Again
1620 Approximate Start of the 'Age of Enlightenment'.
1620 Official start of the Great Commission in America.
1620 Official start of the objection to Great Commission.

Matthew 28
33. Then Jesus came and spoke to them, saying, "All authority has been given to Me in heaven and on earth.
34. Go therefore and make disciples of all the nations, baptizing them in the name of the Father and of the Son and of the Holy Spirit.
35. Teaching them to observe all things that I have commanded you; and lo, I am with you always, even to the end of the age." Amen.

Whew, enough is enough? Maybe we should all go back to where we came from, the Tower of Babel. Well anyway, certain 'Godless' elected officials (who appoint judges > Tort Reform). If only we understood and had and support more Biblical Heroes of Faith as elected officials, and even all walks of life.

Let us make the Great Commission, Great Again.

I met an American Indian Chief (we are all native to Babel) in Tallahassee Fl. He was there for a PBS special about a mystery jeweled cross that he had inherited. He related to me that his people had been influenced by Spanish Missionaries, and still are today, including very much himself. Jesus is LORD. Of course later that day PBS History Detectives made him look like a child and ridiculed his cross and said that the cross was of Indian origin and had nothing to do with Christianity.

Obviously those who do not appreciate Christianity do not appreciate how the founding of America was based on Christ's Great Commission and that all peoples must hear of Christ's Work on the Cross for those who would believe. No mystery in that, history defectives.

Who are certain elected officials? Jesus said in Matthew 7:15: "Beware of false prophets, who come to you in sheep's clothing, but inwardly they are ravenous wolves. 16. "You will know them by their fruits."

History+Bible=Wolves&Good Shepherds Diff.

Let's see now, in the late 1700's the American founding Fathers 'agree to disagree' that indentured servants, (earn your passage/learn the system) are ok; in the 1800's certain elected officials approve slavery for economic development (plus African self-appointed officials who sell own people to slavers) and press for Dred Scott decision that slaves are not people, compassionate types approve the 'servant hood principle' for people; the Civil War frees the slaves and servants and causes integration havoc, especially with certain elected officials who impose segregation, compassionate types work it out; in the 1960's certain elected officials enact the Great Society Forever Giveaway making many forever dependency slaves, compassionate types approve the 'helping hand principle' for people (1962: No God in schools); in 1973 Roe v Wade says the unborn are not people, compassionate types adopt the 'adoption protest movement' for people; in the 2000's certain elected officials wreck our foreign policy efforts for peace there, and many dependency slaves are imported to replace the aborted babies and vote for their favorite certain elected officials, compassionate types try to 'make room for everyone and care for people'.

If every preacher this week would preach on the 6 day creation, how many would have a job on Monday? Not a good idea?

If every preacher would do as Moses instructed in Deut. 31 to read the Book of the Law every 7 years at the Feast of Tabernacles: Joshua did it in 7 years, thereafter?) or Josiah or Ezra and read the Book of the Law (first 5 Books – fundamentally 6 Days to 10 Commandments – 6 days imbedded in #4) to the people, how many would have a job before the Benediction. Not a good idea?

How about if every preacher would actually read their Scripture reference in the historical context (even contextual) of Scripture instead of their favored theology, myth or old wives tale, or personal beliefs, or even agree to 'not to disagree' with those distort and mangle Scripture to support their ism-?

We are sinners, saved by Grace, if we 'bend the knee to Jesus', and arise and walk, knowing 'The Spirit of God' is stronger than 'the spirit of the Devil'.

Maybe then we could talk about salvaging our culture, and our well-being, by redeeming the concept of personal responsibility? The present and eternal issue here. And I believe we have a 'fear of God' problem in world cultures.

Might be worth a try. Jesus may not come back for years. And if like the flood of Noah's time, at the last minute, to rescue a remnant - maybe it is up to us? Sorry, a very good possibility, even historically.

What then to us, and our posterity? What about martyred Christians across the world? What about the world chaos that seems to be coming here? A universal law: don't fix it there, it comes here (even from down the street).

We can be chosen and indifferent (and enjoy ourselves), or we can choose to make a difference (and enjoy ourselves).

And I believe this has eternal significance. The heroes of the faith believed it.

Got to start somewhere. Not a paid political ad, but sure hope it is approved, by the 7 Churches.

Matthew 7:13. "Enter by the narrow gate; for wide is the gate and broad is the way that leads to destruction, and there are many who go in by it. 14. "Because narrow is the gate and difficult is the way which leads to life, and there are few who find it.

Old Chinese Proverb: 'he who walks on left side of road may be hit by oncoming donkeys'.

Confucius 551 BC – 479 BC. 🤔

Ecclesiastes 10: 2. A wise man's heart is at his right hand, but a fool's heart at his left.

King Solomon. 1015 BC – 975 BC.

I used to think the narrow path was an isolated road. Now I think that path is really an interstate. And we can see each other, on the highway of life.

And of course we have crossover accidents and exits and reentry points. Places where we can refuel, rest, intermingle and change directions even.

Only God's Word can help us determine if our direction is right. And of course, there are always those who are looking for directions to Jesus, Author and finisher of Life, but also needing 'the rules of the road':

The 10 Commandments. Without Law & Order, both sides of the road are dangerous.

Some say No Way, some insist My Way, some relent to Their Way. But those who humbly bend the knee to the God-Man Jesus and His sacrifice on the cross, and boldly witness to 'No Other Way'.

1 John 2:3. Now by this we know that we know Him, if we keep His commandments. 4. He who says, "I know Him," and does not keep His commandments, is a liar, and the truth is not in him. 5. But whoever keeps His word, truly the love of God is perfected in him. By this we know that we are in Him. 6. He who says he abides in Him ought himself also to walk just as He walked.

Been sampling liberal news and conservative news. Left spin, right spin. Like watching a tennis match. Back and forth. My neck is getting sore.

My brother is a good table tennis player. I really could not beat him. One day, being the ambiguous guy that I am, switched the paddle to my left hand.

All of a sudden I was being successful. Then my brother noticed the ambiguity, compensated, and proceeded to make things right, again.

But, nothing wrong with being left handed. A lefty bowler spins the ball to the right and a righty bowler spins the ball to the left.

Both with the same objective, to hit the 'pocket' rightly, and avoiding the game changing 'splits and gutter balls'.

I meet so many good people in my life's journey. Mostly they want to live a good life and be right in the eyes of the Creator.

And of course we have the uninformed and those frustrated with lefty spin who strike back in unrighteous anger.

Unfortunately with our ever increasingly 'depraved and deprived schools, media, even lefty churches', we are not being taught to recognize the spin on the ball.

In the last FL. election we came that "" close to having a lefty Governor and Senator (pro-choice). A right group in Florida sending voter guides and information to right churches saved the day, for now (pro-life).

Of course we sent more lefty Congress people to Tallahassee and Washington. Hence our dilemma and difficulties right now. Year 2020, a Constitutional Crisis?

But then, it is all about the 'right to choose' which of the Big 10 Commands of God we want left out of the conversation.

Nothing left but to pray and hold classes on recognizing the spin and being an influence for right in our world again.

Time for a paradigm shift, a game changer, or back to the basics. It is God's wisdom and Commandments versus the Babel mentality of rebellion against God.

The Bible, history of the right (faith in the Living Christ and His Sacrifice \diamond) and those who are left out, and why.

John 3: 16. For God so loved the world, that he gave his only begotten Son, that whosoever believeth in him should not perish, but have everlasting life. 17. "For God did not send His Son into the world to condemn the world, but that the world through Him might be saved.

Merry Christmas NASA December 24, 1968, with Stamp of Approval no less, and No More!

From Wikipedia:

On December 24, 1968, in what was the most watched television broadcast at the time, the crew of Apollo 8 read in turn from the Book of Genesis as they orbited the moon. Bill Anders, Jim Lovell, and Frank Borman recited verses 1 through 10, using the King James Version text.

Bill Anders "We are now approaching lunar sunrise, and for all the people back on Earth, the crew of Apollo 8 has a message that we would like to send to you: 'IN the beginning God created the heaven and the earth. And the earth was without form, and void; and darkness was upon the face of the deep. And the Spirit of God moved upon the face of the waters. And God said, Let there be light: and there was light. And God saw the light, that it was good: and God divided the light from the darkness.'"

Jim Lovell "'And God called the light Day, and the darkness he called Night. And the evening and the morning were the first day. And God said, Let there be a firmament in the midst of the waters, and let it divide the waters from the waters. And God made the firmament, and divided the waters which were under the firmament from the waters which were above the firmament: and it was so. And God called the firmament Heaven. And the evening and the morning were the second day.'"

Frank Borman "'And God said, Let the waters under the heaven be gathered together unto one place, and let the dry land appear: and it was so. And God called the dry land Earth; and the gathering together of the waters called He Seas: and God saw that it was good.' And from the crew of Apollo 8, we close with good night, good luck, a Merry Christmas – and God bless all of you, all of you on the good Earth."

Lawsuit: Madalyn Murray O'Hair, an atheist, responded by suing the United States government, alleging violations of the First Amendment. The suit was dismissed by the Supreme Court due to lack of jurisdiction.

Later (after the memo), on the Apollo 11 mission, Buzz Aldrin received communion on the lunar surface shortly after landing. Although he did not keep his actions secret, he only said a non-religious sentence on the intercom, and read from the scripture off-air.

4th Commandment.: Ex 20:11. For in six days the LORD made the heavens and the earth, the sea, and all that is in them, but he rested on the seventh day. Therefore the LORD blessed the Sabbath day and made it holy.

About 4032 years after The Tower of Babel incident, mutineers from the British ship HMS Bounty founded a Christian colony on Pitcairn Island. God scattered humanity after the Tower and God eventually used a strange set of circumstances to found this community at the remotest part of the world. Some may say this was not an official missionary endeavor, but I like the original intent and success of God's purposes. When 'take the -ism- into all the world' replaces 'take the Gospel into all the world, the 10 Commandments, and undistorted history', Mission is just about over. (Church (& World) History in a microcosm?)

Excerpt from Wikipedia: Further information: Mutiny on the Bounty: In 1790, nine of the mutineers from the Bounty, along with the native Tahitian men and women that were with them (six men, eleven women and a baby), settled on Pitcairn Islands and set fire to the Bounty. The wreck is still visible underwater in Bounty Bay, discovered in 1957 by National Geographic explorer Luis Marden. Although the settlers survived by farming and fishing, the initial period of settlement was marked by serious tensions among them. Alcoholism, murder, disease and other ills took the lives of most mutineers and Tahitian men. John Adams and Ned Young turned to the scriptures, using the ship's Bible as their guide for a new and peaceful society. Young eventually died of an asthmatic infection. The Polynesians also converted to Christianity. (Used Ship's Bible to teach English!)

They later converted from their original form of Christianity to Seventh-day Adventism, following a successful Adventist mission in the 1890s. After the rediscovery of Pitcairn, John Adams was granted amnesty for his part in the mutiny. (Ned Young slept thru the mutiny, when awakened, he was Pitcairn bound.)

(ps 7th Day is just another ism, that divides us – today Pitcairn needs Wyatt Earp & Doc Holliday to clean up Tombstone Territory. The Clanton's have hijacked the OK Corral).
