

----- No King 2 years -----

3220 AM, 3930 JP, 784 BC, 26 SK, 41 NK

564. NK-When Jeroboam II died, the kingdom seriously declined. Tumults arose which headed the Israelites toward their ultimate destruction, beginning first with Jeroboam's own family and then affecting the whole kingdom. This was foretold by Amos. {#Am 7:1-8:14} All was reduced to anarchy among the Israelites for eleven and a half years, and there was no king during this time. [E56] This can be deduced by comparing the times of these two kingdoms. We understand that in Israel the six month long reign of Zachariah, the son of Jeroboam II, occurred in the last six months of the thirty-eighth year of Uzziah. The one month that Shallum reigned was the first month of the thirty-ninth year of Uzziah. {#2Ki 15:8,13} [L81]

567. NK-Zachariah, the son of Jeroboam II, began his reign in the thirty-eighth year of Uzziah, king of Judah. He was the fourth and last of the family of Jehu, as was foretold by God. He reigned for six months. {#2Ki 15:8,12 10:30}
