525. When Edom was still under the control of Judah, the three kings of Israel, Judah and Edom united to subdue the rebellious Moabites. [E48] In this war, the prophet Elisha miraculously furnished the army with water and assured them of the victory over their enemies. Mesha, king of the Moabites, was besieged in Kirhareth and tried unsuccessfully to break out with the small forces he had left. He captured the firstborn son of the king of Edom, who was referred to as king of the Edomites by the prophet Amos. {#Am 2:1} He offered him as a whole burnt offering on the wall of the city. {#2Ki 3:1-27}

534. NK-Jehoram, king of Israel, and Ahaziah, king of Judah, went out together with their armies to Ramothgilead against Hazael, who had recently succeeded Benhadad to the kingdom of Syria, as Elisha the prophet had foretold him. In that battle, Jehoram was grievously wounded by the Syrians and retired to Jezreel to be healed of his wounds. {#2Ki 8:1-29} Meanwhile, a certain son of the prophets was sent by Elisha and came to Ramoth. He anointed Jehu, the son of Jehoshaphat the son of Nimshi, king over Israel. [L72] He told him the will of God concerning the wiping out of the house of Ahab. As soon as Jehu had been proclaimed king by the captains and officers of the army, he marched to Jezreel. There he killed both Jehoram and Jezebel. {#2Ki 9:1-37} Jehu sent letters to Samaria which were responsible for the death of the seventy sons of Ahab, as foretold by Elisha. He took Jehonadab, the son of Rechab, with him to Samaria. There he destroyed all the family of Ahab with all the priests of Baal. Although he destroyed Baal worship, he still maintained the worship of Jeroboam's golden calves, and the associated idolatry by the Israelites, for the duration of his twenty-eight year reign. {#2Ki 10:28,29,36}
