73. Therefore, on this day, Abram, when he was seventy-five years old, obeyed the call of God. He took his wife Sarai, his nephew Lot, the son of Haran, with all the substance he had acquired and the souls which God had given him in Haran. He set out on his journey and at length came into the land of Canaan, through which he passed until he came to a place called Sichem, to the oak of Moreh, {#Ge 12:4-6} which is mentioned later. {#Ge 35:4 Jos 24:25,26 Jud 9:6} Here God promised Abram that he would give this land to his seed, and Abram built an altar to the Lord who had appeared to him there. Departing from there, he went toward the east into the hill country called Luz, later known by the name of Bethel. {#Ge 28:19} There he again built an altar and called on the name of the Lord. From there he continued his journey and came into the south part of that country, which borders Egypt. {#Ge 12:7-9}

93. Sarah died in Hebron at the age of a hundred and twenty-seven. Abraham bought the cave for her burial in the field of Machpelah from Ephron the Hittite, for a sum of money.

This was the first possession that he had in the land of Canaan. {#Ge 23:1,2,19,20}

2187d AM, 2897 JP, 1817 BC

103. Heber, the fifth from Noah, died four hundred and thirty years after the birth of his son Peleg. {#Ge 11:17} This man lived the longest of any who were born after the flood. He outlived Abraham and from him Abraham came first to be surnamed the Hebrew. {#Ge 14:13} In later times, all the posterity of his grandchild Jacob were known by the same name. {#Ge 40:15} Canaan was called the land of the Hebrews while the Canaanites were still living there.

2474 AM, 3184 JP, 1530 BC

171. Caleb, the son of Jephunneh, was born forty years before he was sent by Moses to spy out the land of Canaan. {#Jos 14:7,10}

2560a AM, 3269 JP, 1445 BC

337. The remaining land was divided among the other seven tribes for their inheritance and the boundaries were recorded in a book. {#Jos 18:1-19:51} After the seven nations of the Canaanites were destroyed, their lands were all distributed among the Israelites.
